

Historic Church Preservation Act

No historic church, chapel, or other protected religious landmark shall be modified or altered in a manner that changes its historic architectural character to resemble another religious or foreign architectural tradition, including mosque architecture.

Historic religious buildings shall be preserved in accordance with their documented architectural, cultural, and historical character.