

The Note

Bolshevik Red Terror

Historical examination of the Bolshevik Red Terror and its impact on populations subjected to political violence, persecution, and forced ideological control.

The Grand Dérangement

Historical examination of the Grand Dérangement and the displacement, suppression, and cultural consequences experienced by the Acadian people.

Statue of Liberty Subversion — Emma Lazarus

An examination of the 1903 installation of Emma Lazarus's The New Colossus plaque and the understanding that its symbolism altered or subverted the original meaning associated with the Statue of Liberty and French-American history.

Modern Communist Movements

An examination of modern communist movements, their historical development, and their relationship to political organizations, ideology, and foreign territorial movements.

Counter-Communism Movement

A call for modern communist organizations engaging in “modeling” extermination campaigns or support terrorist activity to be formally evaluated and designated as transnational terrorist organizations.

Restore the Statue of Liberty's True and Original Meaning

A call to restore historical recognition of the Statue of Liberty's original meaning and its connection to French-American friendship, liberty, and the historical contributions of French Americans.

Free America

A call for an end to enduring systems of forced foreign mass cultural assimilation and for the protection of cultural heritage, historical identity, freedom, and self-determination.

~Union of Saints