

Forcing Whites to accept DEI/DRE initiatives is akin to holding Whites hostage.

→ Force, Fraud, Coercion, or Extortion

1. They have to support DEI/DRE, or they may not have the same opportunities.
2. They lose opportunities because of DEI/DRE.
3. If they speak up about being against DEI/DRE, they risk being labeled with horrible, violent names like “racist,” “Nazi,” “fascist,” “White supremacist,” or “far-right extremist.” They may become targeted.
4. Worse, they may become victims of violent assault, or even murder.

→ What if the reverse were true?

1. Blacks have to support “White-only programs,” or they will not have the same opportunities.
2. They lose opportunities because of “White-only programs.”
3. If they speak up about being against “White-only programs,” they risk being labeled with horrible names; they become targeted.
4. Worse, they may become victims of violent assault, or even murder.

Welcome to the “M–KKK” — Modern or “Modifier-Modified-KK.”

- (K), “KA,” “Mystery,” “K-ill T’Chaka”
- Klux (Circle) Killing Clan — At this time in history, Whites are being subjugated, ethnically cleansed from their culture, and worse, violently assaulted and even murdered for standing up for themselves.

2 million fewer White students today (the same number of total students between the years 1940–1950).

The GI Bill was passed in 1944.

Achieving healthy college attendance never meant the “expulsion of Whites.”

→ I speak as an ethnic Acadian American, and I see Americans experiencing just the same. This is the “turning of the back” on the American people.

“HBCUs became overcrowded, and many qualified Black veterans were turned away simply due to lack of space.”

- What is really happening to Whites today?

Perception is a hell of a drug.

Summary: We can support one another, without modern slaveries.
