

Normalized Violence Against Americans

Violence against Americans by Immigrant Mexicans, First Borns is “normalized,” yet rarely mentioned.

Our reality is far different from what is being discussed.

The aggression is confrontational on a daily basis, and racism against White Americans is normalized.

It is clear that the full truth is being suppressed.

White Americans are expected to endure daily harm, racism, and violence, yet this reality is rarely acknowledged. By rarely, we mean almost never.

In a country of over 343.48 million people, how is abuse against White Americans so seldom discussed?

Acid rain drops are falling on my head; White Americans feel like ghosts in right's discussions, as though they are better off presumed dead.

Whites Are Not Ghosts.

Please tell the whole story.

Americans deserve better.
