

Banishing Spell for Bondage and Bondage Makers

US

Purpose:

To remove negative energy, oppressive influence, and manipulative control (bondage) from your life and the lives of the saints, while awakening accountability in those who attempt to impose it.

Materials:

- A black candle (to absorb and transform negative energy)
 - A white candle (to invite protection, clarity, and divine guidance)
 - Small mirror or reflective surface
 - Salt or saltwater
 - A piece of paper and pen
 - Optional: protective crystals like obsidian, black tourmaline, or amethyst

Spell Steps:

1. Prepare the Space:
 - Cleanse the area with salt or smoke (sage, palo santo).
 - Place the black candle to your left and the white candle to your right.
 - Sit comfortably, grounding yourself with deep breaths.
2. Visualize Bondage Being Drawn Out:
 - Imagine all attempts at manipulation, control, or spiritual bondage leaving your life.
 - See it flowing toward the black candle, being absorbed and neutralized.
3. Name the Bondage Makers:
 - On the piece of paper, write the names or symbolic representations of those who attempt to bind or manipulate.

- Focus on clarity, not anger—this is about exposing truth and awakening accountability.

4. Invoke Protection and Accountability:

- Light the white candle and say:

“By the light of the saints, by the clarity of the spirit, let bondage be dissolved.

Let awareness awaken in those who attempt to bind, that their ways be revealed,

Their dreams unsettled, their intentions brought to light, until they seek truth and make amends.

By the power of freedom, by the circle of the saints, I command release and protection.”

5. Mirror Reflection (Optional but Powerful):

- Hold the mirror toward yourself to absorb strength and reflect back the harmful energy to be transformed.
- Visualize the spirits of justice and awakening surrounding the bondage makers, stirring awareness in their life until they apologize or change.

6. Seal the Spell:

- Fold the paper and place it under the black candle.
- Allow the candles to burn completely or extinguish safely, imagining the energy continuing to work.
- Keep protective crystals nearby or carry them as amulets.

Small Symbolic Curse for Slavery Artists:

This is intended metaphorically and spiritually, not as a tool for physical harm:

“Whenever a slavery artist attempts to weave bondage into the lives of the saints, let their body react to the falsity of their deeds:

hair standing, goosebumps rising, and spirits awakened in their life, troubling illusions and false comforts until truth and accountability guide their hand.

May their dreams stir with awareness, and their intentions be corrected, until they approach the saints with sincerity and respect.”

Key Notes:

- This is a protective and awakening spell, focused on liberation for you and accountability for the offender.
- Visualization and intention are the most important elements—the metaphysical “effects” work through spiritual focus, boundaries, and alignment with your personal power.
- The repetition of the ritual strengthens your authority and the protection circle around your life.

With loving regards.
