The Truth:

At this time, American Republicans are much more aware of global politics than American Democrats. American Democrats largely remain in denial, as they root for foreign adversaries and even display their flags.

Democrats, no longer the party of American rights, but a party complicit in crimes against humanity, as they actively support the dismantling of the United States—its military and its native demographics—while forcing and coercing incoming populations for votes and power.

We are witnessing levels of betrayal that Americans, as a unified nation, have never seen before.

We face a third world war, via proxy, hybrid conflicts, with or without the support of American Democrats.

There is no doubt that slavery and genocide have been used as weapons of war.
