

200 forms of persecution against Americans, when carried out in a widespread or systematic manner with institutional knowledge or participation, can constitute crimes against humanity under international law.

I. Physical Violence and Bodily Harm

1. Physical assault by caregivers
2. Physical assault by institutional staff
3. Corporal punishment causing injury
4. Forced physical restraint
5. Exposure to domestic violence
6. Forced participation in violent acts
7. Denial of medical treatment after injury
8. Forced medical procedures without consent
9. Medical experimentation
10. Forced drug administration
11. Physical torture for discipline
12. Beatings as behavioral control
13. Injury during forced labor
14. Injury during trafficking
15. Injury during confinement
16. Physical harm during interrogations
17. Physical punishment in detention
18. Forced physical endurance tasks
19. Exposure to hazardous environments
20. Deliberate infliction of pain

There were many articles worth noting of women being forced against their will in medical settings in recent years, especially by foreign doctors.

II. Sexual Violence and Exploitation

- 21. Sexual assault by caregivers
- 22. Sexual assault by authority figures
- 23. Sexual assault in institutions
- 24. Child rape
- 25. Sexual trafficking
- 26. Forced sexual activity
- 27. Grooming by adults
- 28. Sexual exploitation for profit
- 29. Sexual exploitation for coercion
- 30. Production of sexual material
- 31. Distribution of sexual material
- 32. Forced nudity
- 33. Sexual humiliation
- 34. Sexual violence used as punishment
- 35. Sexual violence used as control
- 36. Exposure to sexual acts
- 37. Coerced sexual silence
- 38. Sexual blackmail
- 39. Sexual abuse in foster care
- 40. Sexual abuse in detention

One woman reported being raped over 40,000 times by traffickers.

III. Psychological Torture and Mental Harm

- 41. Chronic intimidation
- 42. Threats of abandonment
- 43. Threats of violence
- 44. Forced fear conditioning
- 45. Isolation as punishment

- 46.Solitary confinement
- 47.Sensory deprivation
- 48.Sleep deprivation
- 49.Chronic humiliation
- 50.Degrading treatment
- 51.Gaslighting by authority figures
- 52.Forced confession of guilt
- 53.Forced loyalty to abusers
- 54.Forced silence about harm
- 55.Witnessing abuse without protection
- 56.Induced helplessness
- 57.Induced shame
- 58.Induced fear of authority
- 59.Psychological manipulation
- 60.Coercive control

Genocidal language and hate speech have reached new levels on online platforms.

IV. Family Separation and Forced Association

- 61.Forced separation from parents
- 62.Forced separation from siblings
- 63.Arbitrary removal from home
- 64.Forced placement with abusers
- 65.Denial of family reunification
- 66.Forced visitation with abusers
- 67.State enforced family rupture
- 68.Permanent separation without due process
- 69.Placement in unsafe foster care
- 70.Forced adoption
- 71.Trafficking through custody systems

- 72.Family destruction as punishment
- 73.Coercive child relocation
- 74.Cultural family erasure
- 75.Identity severance
- 76.Forced dependency on abusers
- 77.Denial of kinship ties
- 78.State enforced guardianship abuse
- 79.Removal for political reasons
- 80.Removal for economic exploitation

Forcing women and girls to give birth after rape constitutes reproductive slavery and is a crime against humanity.

V. Forced Labor and Exploitation

- 81.Forced child labor
- 82.Labor under threat of punishment
- 83.Labor without compensation
- 84.Hazardous labor
- 85.Domestic servitude
- 86.Agricultural exploitation
- 87.Industrial exploitation
- 88.Street labor exploitation
- 89.Forced begging
- 90.Labor for institutional profit
- 91.Labor in detention
- 92.Labor in shelters
- 93.Labor tied to punishment
- 94.Labor under coercion
- 95.Labor interfering with education
- 96.Economic exploitation by guardians

- 97.Debt bondage
- 98.Trafficked labor
- 99.Labor under surveillance
- 100.Labor enforced by violence

Many women report continued domestic slavery.

VI. Educational Persecution

- 101.Denial of access to education
- 102.Expulsion without due process
- 103.Discriminatory discipline
- 104.Educational segregation
- 105.Ideological indoctrination
- 106.Suppression of speech
- 107.Punishment for beliefs
- 108.Forced ideological conformity
- 109.Denial of accommodations
- 110.Educational neglect
- 111.Abuse in schools
- 112.Sexual abuse by educators
- 113.Psychological abuse by educators
- 114.Forced silence about abuse
- 115.Retaliation for reporting harm
- 116.Labeling as deviant
- 117.Permanent academic exclusion
- 118.Destruction of future prospects
- 119.Surveillance based discipline
- 120.Criminalization of childhood behavior

Abusers may sabotage career or education and is a widely seen abuse tactic today.

VII. Health and Medical Persecution

- 121.Denial of medical care
- 122.Denial of mental health care
- 123.Forced psychiatric confinement
- 124.Forced medication
- 125.Medical neglect in institutions
- 126.Withholding life saving treatment
- 127.Medical discrimination
- 128.Forced sterilization
- 129.Coercive medical decisions
- 130.Medical abuse in custody
- 131.Neglect of disabilities
- 132.Painful procedures without necessity
- 133.Use of restraint in treatment
- 134.Medical experimentation
- 135.Health based discrimination
- 136.Neglect of trauma injuries
- 137.Failure to treat abuse injuries
- 138.Psychological harm through misdiagnosis
- 139.Health neglect in detention
- 140.Health neglect in foster care

Health neglect may occur in all spheres of society.

VIII. Legal and Institutional Persecution

- 141.Denial of due process
- 142.Arbitrary detention
- 143.Prolonged detention without review
- 144.Criminalization of victims
- 145.Punishment for reporting abuse

- 146.Retaliation by institutions
- 147.Silencing through legal threats
- 148.Fabrication of charges
- 149.Institutional cover up
- 150.Denial of legal representation
- 151.Forced testimony against self
- 152.Use of children as leverage
- 153.Use of children as evidence tools
- 154.Coercive plea practices
- 155.Denial of appeals
- 156.Discriminatory sentencing
- 157.Forced compliance agreements
- 158.Institutional intimidation
- 159.Failure to investigate abuse
- 160.Protection of perpetrators

Many report to the police only to find the police are unwilling to help.

IX. Cultural and Identity Persecution

- 161.Erasure of cultural identity
- 162.Forced identity reassignment
- 163.Suppression of language
- 164.Suppression of religion
- 165.Forced ideological identity
- 166.Public shaming
- 167.Social exclusion
- 168.Targeting based on sex
- 169.Targeting based on family status
- 170.Targeting based on beliefs
- 171.Forced renunciation of identity

- 172. Degradation of dignity
- 173. Labeling as inferior
- 174. Dehumanization
- 175. Normalization of harm
- 176. Social death
- 177. Identity based punishment
- 178. Group based persecution
- 179. Generational targeting
- 180. Cultural destruction

In recent years we have witnessed false story-telling of American history by foreigners: Whites have been widely persecuted with racist terms.

X. Systemic and Structural Harm

- 181. Institutional normalization of abuse
- 182. Widespread tolerance of harm
- 183. Systemic failure to protect
- 184. State knowledge of abuse
- 185. Policy enabled harm
- 186. Budgetary denial of protection
- 187. Data suppression of harm
- 188. Retaliation against whistleblowers
- 189. Impunity for perpetrators
- 190. Structural discrimination
- 191. Predictable harm cycles
- 192. Multi generational trauma
- 193. Population level targeting
- 194. Systematic retraumatization
- 195. Forced survival conditions
- 196. Denial of remedy

197.Denial of reparations

198.Denial of truth

199.Denial of justice

200.Denial of restoration

There is no denying that the American population has suffered war propaganda and mass information campaigns.

Closing Legal Note

When these acts are committed against children as a civilian population, with knowledge, pattern, and institutional participation or acquiescence, they satisfy the elements of crimes against humanity, including persecution torture inhumane acts and severe deprivation of fundamental rights.