

The Communist: A Satirical Characterization

1. Good at finding targets (you).
2. A failure of their parents. Now, a failure of the world.
3. An entitled group of people who think they can get away with anything and everything. They're the ones lighting your business on fire. Capitalism, right? Wrong.
4. They take aim at people who are simply trying to defend themselves from them.
5. They learned about communism in class, where the ultra-left foreign teacher glorified it during the pandemic. Thank your sponsors.
6. Students who do not want to pay their debts. Never, ever paying that bill. I demand that I not pay it.
7. They target people who are largely defending themselves against an authoritarian communist regime with a red flag they have seen before. Where was it? Oh, over a pile of ruins from the worst war in history. Thank a local communist.
8. They desperately seek to intimidate, create fear, make demands, and dismantle a normal, healthy society. And replace it, of course, with your new normal. Arm, please? I SAID ARM!! Sorry about your heart.
9. Anything cool, they will take.
10. They are super weird. They're the Democrats who followed the cult of the worst slogans and started a new group called "the communists."
11. They call people Nazis and fascists, yet embody the very characteristics they accuse others of possessing. They wear the stashed pictures of Hitler while waving a red flag, too. Worst of both worlds. Really.
12. A group of young bullies spreading fear. That's it. That is who they are.
13. They want to be part of something. Why not join a niche anti-American war front?
14. Do you want to help us dox the military, join our adversaries, and set our public servants on fire? Join the communists.
15. Who needs Americans when you can have smugglers and traffickers?
16. I am going to wave a flag associated with a regime responsible for mass death while claiming that I want to help you.
17. I know X, and I know X is attacking you, but we are better friends with them than we are with you because they listen to cool music, like punk.
18. I am waving a red flag because I want to feel like a cool vampire.
19. I make demands. I make mud pies. It makes me feel accomplished.
20. They are going to lecture you on subjects they are not sophisticated enough to realize are wrong, and evil.
