These Truths We Hold

- White people have been vilified and targeted over and over again throughout history. They have experienced conflict, persecution, war, occupation, discrimination, racial targeting, racial violence, theft, espionage, fraud, brutal assaults, political assassinations, arson, false hate crimes, “witch hunts,” “WWII-level blame-shift politics,” sabotage, blackmail, and human trafficking, including especially White female slavery, throughout history and still today, so much so that White humanity has been nearly forgotten by a major portion of our “democratic” society.
- No longer democracy, it has been shaped into a modern war front that actively fights freedom, peace, and humanity. It seeks revenge against innocent and vulnerable people. It actively aims to instill intimidation and fear in the American population. This “new political culture and nation” has not only been successful in demonizing the White race, but it has also justified slavery, medical negligence, warfare, violent assaults, and genocide. This truth we hold: that never again will we forget our own humanity in order to make others feel comfortable “trampling” on our spirits, our territory, and our homes. The White race is not a spirit one can “forge over” by fortifying their own in its place. Its people, memory, culture, and heritage will remain forever, and may we be a symbol of White courage and bravery every step of the way.
