The issue is not prayer. The issue is not religious peace. The issue is territorial prayer, forced foreign cultural assimilation imposed upon the native population, and Fourth Generation Warfare. The issue is foreign cultures actively attacking the native population through forced cultural assimilation.

The 2026 U.S. Annual Threat Assessment reported at least three Islamist terrorist attacks in the United States during 2025 and at least 15 disrupted U.S.-based Islamist plotters. This is a legitimate national-security concern.

Islamist extremists constitute one serious terrorist-threat category, particularly in connection with ISIS and al-Qaeda.

- ISIS and al-Qaeda: These are Islamist terrorist organizations. More precisely, they follow violent extremist interpretations of Islam.
- Islamist-inspired offenders: When their violence is motivated by ISIS, al-Qaeda, or another Islamist ideology.
- Racially or ethnically motivated violent extremists: This category includes black supremacist, white supremacist, neo-Nazi, anti-colonial, antisemitic, and other race-based extremists. Racial and Islamist motivations may be combined.
- Antigovernment or antiauthority extremists: This includes certain militia, anarchist, and Abolish-police or Abolish-ICE (ANTIFA) extremists.

Muhammad Musri, president of American Islam and Chairman of the Board of the Islamic Society of Central Florida discussed in his June 21, 2024 Friday sermon plans to buy up abandoned churches and turn them into mosques. He said that Muslims are turning churches into mosques in order to serve the same community, because one day they will become Muslims. Musri said that 100 years ago Christians invaded Islamic countries and built missionary schools destroying mosques and Islamic schools. He added...
