

Union of Saint's Recommendation

If you are looking for outstanding law enforcement and public safety coverage, I highly recommend Kyle Reyes, owner of Law Enforcement Today, Blue Lives Matter, and The Police Tribune.

Some of the best story coverage we have seen yet. Reading Mr. Reyes's reporting feels like relief after grueling and hard fought reconnaissance mission. His work is clear, grounded, and a welcome reprieve for the American people after gathering intelligence and sorting through so much information.

Thank you to you and your team for the work you do.
