

Once 90% of California's population was White.

California now has the second-lowest White population in the country.

Still a problem? Why? Racism and race-based entitlement.

They grabbed, and they grabbed, and they grabbed at her until there was nothing left of her.

It is never going to be enough.

It is always going to be about race.

It is immigration packaged with forced entitlement to political positions, followed by the pushing and shoving down of the native population in California.

It is the "pretending" that they care about "diversity." Yet discrimination and racism ensue.

DEI, "equaled" discrimination against Whites, plain and clear.

"Whites are the problem!" But it isn't Whites. This native population declined by 60%. Wasn't enough.

It will never be enough. And when they get there, foreign politicians will only take more. That's the campaign motto, right? Toma!

Entitled, racist, hateful, spiteful, revengeful.

We've seen it on the ground, we've seen it from our representatives. More, more, more! More Hispanics! Less Blacks! Less Whites. Less Americans.

Attack Karen! Attack her. Attack her again.

*New Privileged Class, Hispanic Class California White TOTAL Replacement. TO~MA.*

These PACS care only about Hispanics. They do not care about the natural American population; we are in their way.

They want to replace more. It is never enough. It is never about equality or diversity. It is only about harming Whites and taking their positions. It's racism.

Americans should naturally support whomever they believe will best protect their country and ensure their safety, especially from genocidal nations and political action committees that seek to harm or replace them.

→ UCLA Latino Policy & Politics Institute

When will it be enough? For a racist political coup? Never.

It's Racism. It's Genocidal Politics.
