For those who have lost their humanity, who themselves claim to be American yet came from a foreign place, who have been at war with Americans, the United States, and Native Americans, particularly against White Americans whom they have “grouped” into a part and attempted to harm, “dismantle,” or “depopulate” and “overthrow”; to those who seek to replace us or believe that American families should be harmed, their property stolen, or subjected to any other form of territorial abuse, conflict, or warfare, may there truly be balance, justice, and equal treatment. This was a shared life, yet so much has been stolen.

For no one who harms me should be welcomed in my home, not even at my door. My door is closed. La justice sera rendue.

There are those in America who know in their hearts that this is not their true path, but a stolen one.

There are those in American who know in their hearts that the path they have taken, is the wrong one.

Ponder what this all means. The whole truth and nothing but the truth in the eyes of God. May every wrong that each individual causes be met with balance and justice.

Is their personal karma for humanity great enough to withstand the weight of justice? Have they been attacking innocent Americans? Or have they been helping Americans? We pray for justice and we pray for balance.

The word justice has spiritual meaning and it reaches beyond human belief.
