

Are You a Gypsy Lawyer? Magical Traveling Alien Lawyer? Foreign-Born, Unfriendly, Posing as a Friendly Lawyer?

Doing business in America? Against American safety, liberty, freedom, peace, defense, culture, society, and sovereignty?

Just kind of snooping around those “population stats?” A little tweak here, an “arc-bend” there? America isn’t Star Wars! Just a little genocidal warfare. No bigs, right? Well, we see you have made big strides since 20-1-9. And you are only 19-29, go you! Military-aged, but you despise the U.S. military. Strange. Anyways.*

Consider your deal with the U.S. canceled. We want you out! You are bad for Americans. Bad for our culture. Bad for the U.S. Bad for business. We tend to recover, without YOU. You were never our first pick, never our last pick.

Here-ye, here-ye! No foreign lawyers making cases against Americans on American soil allowed. You’ve had your fun gathering all kinds of deets on the American peeps.

But we see your true colors! You are kind of shaping up to be a little World War III movement against the American people. ICE was cold, but your Fourth-Generational Global Cold War was worse than an Alaskan tundra in the winter! We saw you became good friends with Russia up there! No, that wasn’t an ice pick you were holding—a game of opposites—but we definitely got the hint. Close enough, right?! Brr!

There was no sunshine with the foreign lawyer front attacking Americans, relentlessly, and on the American taxpayers’ dollars, no less. Ouch, our wallets. Those oil prices, though! We would like our money back, actually. We won’t hold our breath; we know what kind of gal you are, but we will, at the very least, say your date with the U.S. of A. is ov~A.

Go the heck home—somewhere else, anywhere else. We don’t want to see your foreign lawyer name in the U.S. anymore. In fact, we packed your suitcase for you.

If you fail to take it, we might just hand your A to you.

I would take it or leave it, just a warning... go home, or the next stop is the shoe shop. There, they will show you the boot... a cold winter’s boot.
