

Reparations Activists

Reparation Activists: Should PAY reparations to the United States for the murders of White people, the deaths of police officers and public servants, terrorism, looting, fourth-generation warfare, fraud, modern slavery, as well as the destruction caused by modern activism such as BLM, resulting in billions of dollars in damages.

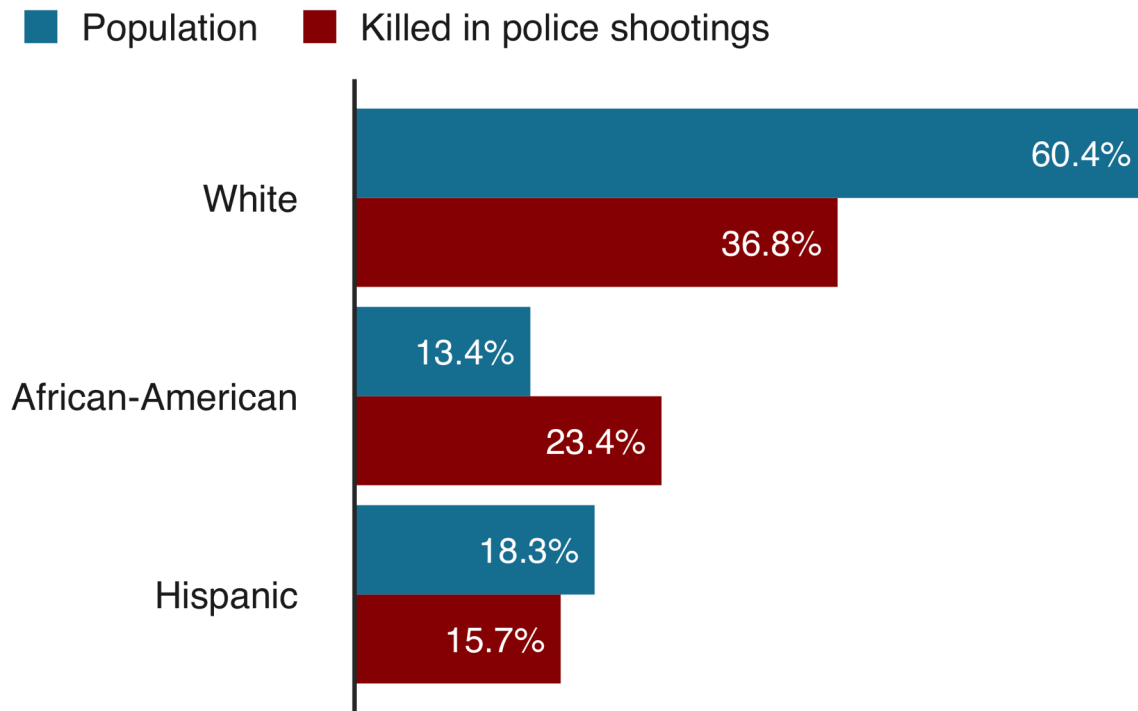

It is not okay to force people to pay your salary based on something that has nothing to do with you or them. This is force, fraud, and coercion. It is slavery. This makes you the villain in our American story. It is theft, making demands against a population, it is racism, selfishness, legal robbery, cruelty, abuse, exploitation and financial violence to do this to the United States of America. Black people are not the only people in the United States who experienced slavery, yet they are one of the few groups in the United States that has already received billions upon billions of dollars in support via grants, nonprofits, and organizations. White people today have never been given a free handout because of their race. Do the math.

This isn't about reparations; it is about hurting others and profiting from them, too. Where are you in the universe, anyways? Today as the United States spends trillions combating modern slavery, fraud, violence, and other harms? Just a hint: One White minority in the United States has committed less than .2%-.5% of crime in the United States. Yet, the White population makes up a large majority of the slaves. We are not the one's perpetuating modern slavery, it's actually other races. Modern slavery is perpetuated by the same modern abuses by the activists within your circles, including BLM activists, who have contributed to relentless targeting and enduring harms against the White population. It isn't cool. We're sick and tired of the victimhood mentality and the constant need for public activism attention. You are not the only group that has endured abuse, but you sure like to claim you are. Well, we've had enough.

As for newcomers to America within the immigrant and Muslim realm, who are also targeting White people and White families who are native here and have long established the American culture, you are not the victim either. Your family either came here because Americans welcomed you, you snuck in, or you invaded the American country. Yet, your entitlement to American money shows everything about your heart and spirit that we need to know. It's all about American money. It has become very clear how racist and harmful you are toward the American people, and let me put it this way: our beautiful people, our beautiful culture, we don't owe a cent to you, and it is clearly the other way around. The exploitation of the American people NEEDS TO END. Every person who commits fraud or an act of violence, slavery, or other harms against the American people belongs in jail, and we aren't afraid to send them there either. Leave Americans ALONE.
