CAIR Action is a legally separate company, but under the same umbrella as the non-profit Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR).

CAIR's leaders denied they have any organizational ties to political action committees, and added: "We represent CAIR, the 501c3 nonprofit organization," said Edward Ahmed Mitchell, the National Deputy Director of CAIR.

The song, performed under his rap moniker Mr. Cardamon, includes the lyrics: "My love to the Holy Land Five. You better look 'em up."

In August, Cotton wrote to IRS Commissioner Billy Long, calling on him to strip CAIR's tax-exempt status because of its "deep ties to terrorist organizations."

"CAIR's deep ties to terrorist groups…should prevent them from maintaining nonprofit status, Cotton said. "The status is a privilege not a right."
