- As a devote student working on accomplishing my 5th degree, I have noticed something about our academic world this year, less whites. I find this interesting, especially as I am finishing my research project on modern slavery. With more consideration and thought, I realized the people I was seeing the least, were white males. Actually it has been seldom that I see advertisements for white males. Sort of, odd. As universities are closing all around the country, well, naturally, I had more questions. For example, a simple search yields results, please see below. I searched for black male and found hundreds of images of purely black males. When I searched for white male, I found hundreds of images of "diversity..." I also saw an advertisement regarding "white male castration." Seems rude, right? For your consideration I have included these searches below.
- ICE hiring add, reminds of wars past. "America needs US."
- Guess what time it is? Time to put on our boots, and fight.
