Blue Race: Protections for the Blue Race

"Blue Race" or "Blue Star Race"

What We Can Call For

- Protection of Cultural Heritage — Preserve ancestral history, languages, traditions, and historic communities.
- Equal Protection Under the Law — Apply civil rights protections fairly to everyone, regardless of race or ethnicity.
- Protection Against Ethnic Displacement — Address forced displacement, land dispossession, and the destruction of established communities.
- Freedom of Association — Protect people's ability to organize peacefully around shared cultural heritage and community interests, consistent with civil rights laws.
- Fair Access to Education — Ensure that educational opportunities are allocated fairly and that students are not discriminated against based on ethnicity.
- Fair Housing and Employment — Prevent discrimination against individuals and communities.
- Protection of Small Historic Communities — Support cultural preservation and community continuity, including Acadian, Appalachian, and other historically rooted American communities.
- Transparency in Public Funding — Require accountability for taxpayer-funded programs and equitable enforcement of grant requirements.
- Freedom of Conscience and Expression — Protect peaceful advocacy, dissent, and cultural expression.
- Equal Recognition of Historical Suffering — Recognize documented persecution and displacement without applying different standards based on the identity of the affected group.

"Blue Race: Equal Protection, Cultural Preservation, Freedom of Conscience, and Justice for Historically Marginalized Communities."

Blue Race: Protections for the Acadian People

- Preservation of Acadian ancestry, history, language, and cultural heritage.
- Recognition of the Acadian Expulsion (Grand Dérangement) and its lasting effects.
- Protection against ethnic discrimination, cultural erasure, and historical misrepresentation.
- Reparations for modern slavery, crimefare and warfare harms.
- Preservation of historic Acadian communities and ancestral connections.
- Equal protection under the law and fair access to education, housing, and employment.
- Support for Acadian cultural institutions, historical records, and heritage education.
- Recognition of Acadian identity and the right to peaceful cultural expression.
- Protection of freedom of conscience, association, and cultural self-determination.

"Protect Acadian Heritage. Preserve Our History. Uphold Equal Rights. Honor Our Ancestors."