

Reflection: Jewish Solidarity Caucus

So I guess this is where we say goodbye.

It isn't antisemitism. You moved to a country that you're now attempting to dismantle. It's reckoning with our "new reality," that you are choosing to attack the culture you are a part of. Well, used to be a part of.

It's no wonder you keep getting kicked out. These places, these "European" places, are so beautiful and have built wonderful cultures that others have been so lucky to enjoy. Yet it's not enough. You want it all, every slice of the cake, yet it cannot be for Whites. Anyone but Whites. I am so young, yet to discover such a hateful group against White Americans, it is just so sickening.

Your group is not just sick, but a real threat to the United States, not just because of your "socialist views," but because of your anti-American racism. You are in an American country? This is how entitled you are.

So this is who we get to live with. A group that chooses to be at perpetual war with the USA and its innocent citizens, whom you choose to relentlessly attack because of your twisted worldview and entitlement to a culture.

You have perpetuated hate campaigns against the American people. I really cannot believe it, but it feels like Americans are in the middle of the German-Jewish Holocaust, but this time it's Americans who are the targets. That's what we get for being a place of refuge.

Well, the truth eventually comes out. Americans are the targets of mass campaigns and communism, and Jewish socialists seem to be running the show. Yet it wasn't just socialism. We were targeted in every way imaginable, weren't we? Leaders, fearless leaders, against the vulnerable American population. I guess Americans couldn't enjoy a movie and a meal with their family after a hard days work. A simple life, they never bothered anyone. Yet it all bothered you, just because they were White.

It all had to be attacked. Stolen, replaced, by a ruthless anti-American race targeting campaign. Sound familiar? Even sitting on our heritage boards with an ax, I am still processing this level of betrayal.

Political groups and their allies, whoever they could find, seemed to have decided it was time to target Whites, White Europeans, and White Americans. They did so ruthlessly, and often without our knowledge. A "gentile," campaign, right? That's what they called us, just a "grazing," of Americans, American life, liberty, freedom.

Actually, it wasn't until Palestine and the pandemic, the mass forced pornography campaigns, this, that, and the other thing, that we said, Whoa, what is really going on here? And with force, a full swing of your blade, you chose war. You joined the foreign war, and you took every kind of swing against us you could figure out how to. You hurt our people. Our families. Our culture.

An innocent culture that, not long ago, hardly used a computer. As we can see, you sure ran with yours. You developed a whole internet movement against the White American people. For what reason?

You didn't like the way you felt? Is this how self-centered, "woe is me," and self-pitying you are? God, we aren't anti-Semitic. We just loathe everything about the ugly attitude and general outlook you have toward everything. Everything we love about being American. I know, surprise, we love Americans, we love America, we are actually American, and the difference shows. You surely communicated those differences for all the world to see.

It's really happening, you showcased how much a Jewish socialist hates me. You hate Americans. Weird!

Look our feelings have nothing to do with your "Jewish" religion, and everything to do with the kind of evil-hearted and stinky person you are. God, it isn't antisemitism. It's just plain hate, and hate you fully earned. You are targeting the American people, it needs to stop. The other option? Just leave.
