

Community Inclusiveness Act 2019, Vaccines:

Source: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PILQj_cO0lg

The “Community Inclusiveness Act” most commonly refers to Prince George’s County, Maryland Council Bill CB-062-2019. It was primarily proposed and sponsored by Deni Taveras, with co-sponsorship from 10 of the 11 county council members.

The official list of sponsors included:

- Deni Taveras
- Calvin S. Hawkins
- Jolene Ivey
- Thomas E. Dernoga
- Dannielle M. Glaros
- Derrick Leon Davis
- Rodney C. Streeter
- Todd M. Turner
- Monique Anderson-Walker
- Sydney J. Harrison
- Mel Franklin

The act was adopted unanimously in November 2019 and addressed immigration enforcement policies, including limiting cooperation with ICE in non-criminal matters.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Deni_Taveras

Ethnic-American Politics vs. Dominican, Puerto Rico Influence

Source: https://www.princegeorgescountymd.gov/sites/default/files/Minutes_05122021-1884.pdf

“Deni Taveras: Maybe it would be beneficial for Ms. Maria to require patrons to provide proof of vaccination or potentially use her business space as a vaccination site.”

We see the unfortunate patterns of medical negligence, coercion, forced immigration without lawful protections, and immigrant and minority movements, including Black Lives Matter, which have led to grave safety issues within our communities, often supported by immigrants, first-generation Americans, left politics and others.