The “Anti-American Creation,” “Pro-Jewish Creation” Movement

Government Benefits

This is called the “Flip.” They call Americans “Goyim” and target their communities for Jewish replacement. They call it politics. This constitutes a Jewish supremacy movement. The movement can be Russian, Israeli, German, or otherwise foreign. They use tactics intended to suppress Americans so that they may promote themselves. This is the issue with “foreign movements” that only support themselves and are not fully integrated into American society. It is a culture within a culture, and this particular culture supports a form of “hybrid warfare” against the American people.

The Torah prohibits certain intermarriages between Israelites and members of particular surrounding peoples in specific biblical circumstances. Deuteronomy 7:3–4 prohibits Israelites from marrying members of certain Canaanite nations, with the stated concern that such marriages could lead Israelites toward other gods.

- Ezra and Nehemiah contain later biblical accounts of opposition to marriages between Judeans and foreign populations.
- Some Haredi men have historically received exemptions or deferments from mandatory military service while studying in yeshivas.
- Kompromat campaigns may be used as a form of coercive activity often by “military-aged” men outside traditional Jewish communities. For example, foreign parents may be more likely to attend synagogue while their sons may inherit certain beliefs yet not attend regularly. Still, the issue being raised here is modern trafficking of American women as a form of supremacy, warfare, and the expression of power over the American people.
- Kompromat may constitute a form of cyberwarfare or, if combined with other campaigns such as “Stop Having Kids,” may be characterized as part of a larger eugenics campaign. The idea is to, “Stop American procreation.”
- While protest is legal, purchasing homes is legal, and other forms of participation in society are legal, the issue is that the ultimate effect may constitute hybrid warfare or legal suppression, as with any case, the evidence must be proven.
- This is why it is important to remain without bias, avoid reflexive support for any foreign nation, and examine the implications of foreign and religious enclaves that actively exploit Americans in order to support their own growth and expansion while “othering Americans” at every turn.
- It’s too bad because we thought highly of the Jewish faith. Many of us never questioned it, but the war in Palestine and Ukraine, Kaporos, organ trafficking, child trafficking, the tunnels, disturbing religious rites, the suppression of Orthodox women,

Jewish cultural programming, and even the normalization of kidnapping American children on websites have unearthed many problems and caused us to see things differently. It makes us consider what it means when a community living in America turns its back on Americans themselves.
