Positions of Authority (Chairs)

- Power (Governance and Decision-Making Capacity)
- Culture (Shared Values, Identity, and Behavioral Norms)
- Institutional and Social Frameworks
 - Religious Institutions
 - Activism Networks
 - Political Organizations
 - Subcultures
- Intelligence Functions (Information Gathering, Analysis, and Distribution)
- Networked Systems (Formal and Informal)
 - Trade and Economic Networks
 - Political and Diplomatic Networks
 - Intelligence and Security Networks
 - Illicit Networks (including trafficking, organized crime, and war-related violations)
- Security Consideration

These interconnected layers present points of vulnerability where foreign influence operations, infiltration, or exploitation can occur, warranting careful observation and, where appropriate, further investigation.

Authority → Power → Culture → Institutions → Intelligence → Networks (economic, political, and security), with potential exposure to foreign influence operations, infiltration, or exploitation.
