ıvelers To See New “51st State” Signs At Popular Canadian Border
ıg

By Alessandro Passalalpi – Sep 10, 2026, 7:00 AM EDT

anada-linked tourism losses continue to accumulate in the United States. But rrent tensions between Canada and the U.S., Americans continue to show support mes to visiting Canada, with strong numbers for trips north.

, Canadians are being encouraged to skip travel to the United States. One province hings a step further, adding new signs for those entering from the state of n. The signs are a stern reminder that Canada has no plans to become the 51st state.

e has been met with mixed reactions, as even Canadians don't feel they need y minder about the "51st state" rhetoric.

Follow Thread

Escalates
B.C. Premier David Eby is asking millions of Canadians to avoid leisure travel to th...
By Alessandro Passalalpi |

Ad

emier David Eby Is Discouraging Canadians From ng To The U.S.

n station at Alcan, 20 miles from Canada's Beaver Creek Port of Entry amped tariff war escalating, Ottawa is now cautioning Canadians to avoid U.S. nd to push for Canadian supplies. Additionally, B.C. Premier David Eby warned in the province and across Canada to avoid non-essential travel to the United

Follow Thread

Columbians, if you have a choice, please don't travel to the United States.
another place to do your tourism. If you can choose a Canadian product instead nerican one, please choose it," Eby said.

Ad

ded on his statement Tuesday, pushing for Canadian products while avoiding om the U.S. Eby says a ban on U.S. alcohol remains in place, and the province will o defend itself against ongoing trade-war attacks from the Trump administration.

Ad

ollow >

of continuing our ban on U.S. alcohol products on B.C. liquor store shelves, we tinue to stand up for British Columbia and British Columbians and defend our y against these unfair attacks," he recently added.

w taken things a step further. The B.C. premier revealed new signs that will be at the border for both U.S. and Canadian travelers.

vealed A New 51st State Border Sign

anada 'will NEVER be the 51st state. Sorry!': B.C. unveils border signs
C British Columbia

adio-Canada is a Canadian broadcast service.

Watch on

Follow Thread

travelers to B.C. The sign says things like "don't litter" and "watch for moose." Most of all is the final logo that says, "Never 51st state."

Ad

ign was also unveiled, directly focused on the 51st state issue.

v sign reads, "Strong, proud and will NEVER be the 51st state. Sorry!"

Ad

oned at the press conference that the signs and current relationship between the ies is especially disappointing with September 11 looming. One of the darkest days in y, the Canadian Premier says Canada stood by America's side during a troubling

we are 25 years later, as President Donald Trump has hurled insults, unfair tariffs ues to threaten our independence as a country," Eby added at the press conference.

o The New 51st State Signs

Credit: Paul McKinnon/Shutterstock

Follow Thread
g, Ottawa, Canada
Ad

had mixed emotions over the signs. Others would have appreciated a different such as "Never mistake kindness for weakness." Others felt the sign was a bad idea instead emphasized the possibility of Canada becoming the 51st state.

Ad

agree with the message, but I don't think us not being a 51st state should be advertised like this. To ind of legitimizes it as a possibility to the loonies, because someone can always say, "never say the "Sorry!" I don't think anyone is "sorry" for us never being a 51st state. I certainly am not. Eby ake up his highly paid writers."

"welcome to British Columbia; never mistake kindness for weakness" would be succinct and not r into this mess."

n't stoop. We're better than that sign. I hope our politicians are doing more than coming up with e mixed message with the sign, Eby clarified that Canada still stands with the United ng these times. The Premier mentioned Canada's constant support for the U.S.

of the darkest travel days in history.

The Current Tension, Eby Still Stands By The United

Credit: GlacierNPS, Wikimedia Commons

Follow Thread

ican flags near the Peace Park Pavilion, Canada

gedy for both Americans and Canadians. During the 9/11 attacks, Canada opened ts airports to U.S. travelers. According to Eby, 8,500 passengers from the U.S. were Vancouver International Airport. Airport workers and volunteers in Canada stepped r neighbors during these times.

× Remove Ads

horrific attacks represented a day of unimaginable tragedy for so many. Our friend and neighbor was under direct attack, and in that moment of fear and inty, Canadians stepped forward."

"In that moment, airport workers, volunteers stepped up at a moment's notice. ened up their homes in Vancouver, Richmond, Delta, Squamish, Abbotsford and d they also opened up their hearts."

emier clarified that Canada still stands with the U.S., but is standing up for itself se times.

still the country that stands by its friends, and we are still the country that up for itself on our own two feet."

to be seen if the new border signs will be a long-term commitment as those fr n state enter Canada. For now, it is yet another reminder of the broken relatio he two countries, one that is expected to impact travel during the fall and into

Follow Thread

Ad

Ad

Canada

Like Follow Share Add Us

AD 1

from you. Share your perspective in the comments below, and please keep the conversation respectful.

lle Elizabeth

ur thoughts

ur community guidelines. No links, inappropriate language, or spam.

ielle Elizabeth

3:07

s dot world ~

liating because of security measures, which are necessary. I am unsure whether there are any other reasons. We currently have a lot of favoritism toward the Jewish , Hindu Indians, Chinese, and non-White racial PACs. Unfortunately, Americans have been highly exploited by foreigners.

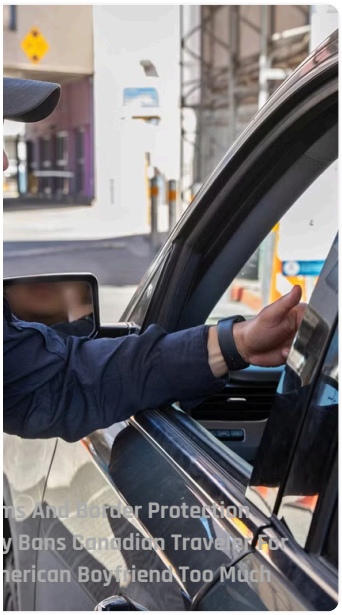

are not the majority, and there is a lot of confusion here. For example, Acadians make up just 0.2–0.5 percent of the population, and most people do not know our history. ned for being White at every turn. They will destroy historic White communities in order to "diversify." They are choosing foreigners instead of supporting the Natives. They our veterans and causing catastrophic, historic damage to our businesses. We are enduring a Fourth-Generation War. I hope that Americans and Canadians can come again, but we cannot choose Left-wing politics if the Left refuses to see the larger picture and continues to harm our Natives to support global interests at the expense /e want peace and the Left has shown us that they will steal this peace every chance they have. Please leave the Left party it is no longer politics, it is a war front against

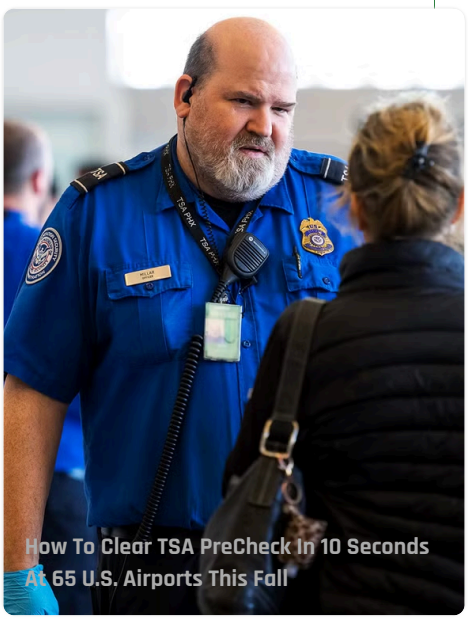

Follow Thread

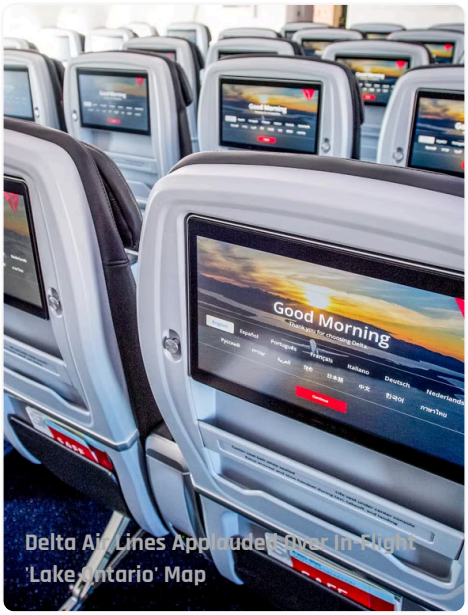

Ad

× Remove Ads

IMENDED

Fin
neighb

Follow Thread

Email Address

Ad

By subscribing, you agree to receive newsletter and marketing emails, and accept our Terms of Use and Privacy Policy. You can unsubscribe anytime.

FOLLOW US

TheTravel on gle

Add Follow

ollow

ABOUT

Join Our Team | Our Audience | About Us |

Press & Events | Media Coverage |

Subscribe to Premium

CONTACT

Contact Us | Careers | Advertising |

Have a News Tip?

LEGAL

Terms | Privacy | Policies

Copyright © 2026 Valnet Inc.