[music] the system is not stopping. And then finally, I want to say that we need one idea and we're not thinking about a solution to the problem. We're dealing with all these other things, but these are diversions from the solution to the problem. And we have to start to think about a solution to the problem so that these young brothers and sisters who are here now who are 15, 16, and 17 are not here 25 years later talking about these same problems. Now, how do I know that the white people know that we are going to come up with a solution to the problem? I know it because they have retina scans. They have what they call racial profiling, DNA banks, and they're monitoring our people to try to prevent the one person from coming up with the one idea. And the one idea is how we are going to exterminate white people because that in my estimation is the only conclusion I have come to. We have to exterminate white people off of the face of the planet to solve this problem. Now, I don't care whether you clap or not, but I'm saying to you that we need to solve this problem because they are going to kill us. And I will leave on that. So, we have to just set up our own system and stop playing and get very serious and not be diverted.

"We have to exterminate White people to solve the problem, and that is all there is to it."

The other day I was running on the street and a Black man walked by me and said, "I thought I had it bad, but you have it way worse than I ever did." I felt it was a strange thing to say to me, rather than a simple "hello," but I knew what he meant. ~Nel
