

Bible and Talmud

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Judaism_and_violence

Union of Saints Recommends OZIRAH vs. OSIRAM Keys When Interpreting Any Religious or Spiritual Philosophy

“The truth is the gospel not the gospel is the truth.”

OZIRAH vs. OSIRAM

OSIRAM pushes, forces and may use violence.

Whereas OSIRAH is forgiving, loving, and dedicated to wisdom, balance, justice and the truth.

OSIRAM acts to thief, deceive, harm, to remove peace, fights for power and control, and acts against nature.

OZIRAH acts to give, to stay true and loyal, for peace, of body, mind and soul, and is nature.

OSIRAM causes anger and hatred, suppresses, manipulates, twists, enslaves.

OZIRAH seeks for her and her children to be freed, she is naturally loving, nurturing, compassionate, mother of all things, father of all things, yet they, naturally~ as a method of survival, for their children, and themselves~ react and retaliate against anger and hatred.

OZIRAH is out of balance due to human harm, particularly due to enslavement of women and children at this time in history, appears in spirit like the justice scales without the heart, the heart falls off. This scale is within as well as external.

OSIRAM manipulates and seeks dehumanization, to create imbalance.

OZIRAH seeks perfect harmony, balance and gentility, loving “oneness” among all.

OZIRAH is the guiding star, the one god, god, goddess, all & nature, that leads us back to ourselves.

OSIRAM is the misleading “fire,” the anti-god, harming god and goddess, their children, and leads us away from ourselves.

