

Poll By Democrats, Ugly Hearted Red Wolf

Processing the lack of humanity in this poll and how misguided a group has to be to be this ruthless toward their own administration. Why do they hate the USA? Why do they hate American father figures so much? Too much negative and ugly propaganda, too much “mobbing,” and group-think.

Clearly, we are facing wars overseas, yet we are on one of the most positive trajectories our country has ever been on, thanks to this administration and its motivation for safeguarding our nation, which should always be the first priority. Greenland being a major success. Furthermore, though this administration has different viewpoints from those on the left on many fronts, their poise, class, and sophistication far triumph what we have seen on the left side.

What does a bully do when they don't get their way? They attack, they sabotage, they victimize. This is the big bad Red wolf pack that the Democrats have become. They are willing to viciously attack and eat their opponents.

They are not fit, not motivated enough to mitigate modern slavery and violence against Americans by foreign and domestic enemies, and not able to see the bigger picture. They are too small, too petty, and most obviously, too violent toward the American people. They are no longer the Democratic Party they used to be. Far from it.

They bark, clearly they also bite. They are fighting an illusory monster, they are creating, and sadly becoming.

As a military member and a veteran, learning of this poll: Have a nice day. We will not be spending any time together. Couldn't imagine sitting with a heart so ugly. The alternative path turned into a war zone. You are no longer a safe organization for the American people, especially not our honorable public servants.
