Chuck Schumer is a part of the modern "Jewish Bund."

His extreme pro immigration and pro Israel policies pose a threat to the American and Palestinian people and culture. He is associated with groups that have been recently named as potential terrorist and stalking and surveillance organizations that promote Jewish protectionism over American protectionism, particularly standing against White American protectionism, such as the ADL.

Schumer may have associates within the Bend the Arc campaign, No Kings campaign, Abolish-Ice (Swern-ov) campaign, Launch Progress and other harmful Jewish campaign affiliates known for Pro-Jewish activism, illegal political trafficking, anti-White campaigns, support of communism, and Bolshevik and Menshevik-like activities. He advocates against American freedoms in support of Israel, which is a major red flag. Many of his views are complicated, some bipartisan, but also very extreme left wing and radical. With a long history of anti-border policies and a career full of bribery, he receives a failing grade on his support of immigration over American safety.

Democrats are launching a $2 million ad campaign targeting Sen. Susan Collins (R-Maine) over her support for funding Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Axios has learned, as public backlash against the agency's operations mounts.

Why it matters: The attack ads — from a group associated with the Chuck Schumer-linked Senate Majority PAC — signal the massive resources both parties are planning to funnel into Maine as Democrats work to oust their top 2026 Senate GOP target.
