Highly political case.

Josh Boswell

Josh Boswell, investigative reporter, reportedly worked with “top forensic experts.”

“Josh Boswell is an award-winning investigative journalist. He was the first reporter to authenticate Hunter Biden’s abandoned laptop using top cyber forensics experts. He uncovered allegations involving former Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff ahead of the 2024 presidential election. His coverage won first place for National Political Reporting in the Southern California Journalism Awards in 2025. He won the same award for investigations into alleged Biden family corruption in 2023. He has also received previous nominations for crime, politics, and corruption reporting since joining the Daily Mail in 2019. His murder investigations reportedly led to the reopening of two cold cases. He also covers UFOs and related investigations.”

Small world.

Summary

Revenge pornographers continue trampling on American women. Katie is a mother and a hard worker. None of this mattered. Her life, liberty, autonomy, livelihood, and career meant nothing to these people. It is sickening.

Cases like these remind us of the small world and realm of political trafficking. They also remind us of who so often betrays us the most, the people closest to us and within our own circles. It is a very disturbing reality for women today.

End women's slavery and sex terrorism.
