SCHOOLS, COLLEGE UNIVERSITY & GAP YEAR PROGRAMS BROCHURE

RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS

Our Residential School Programs Around the World

Harcus Consultancy Group provide residential school, college, university and gap year programs in UK/US/Europe/Asia to students who want to be able to get an academic education while playing highly competitive football. This not only provides an opportunity for players to play at a very high level, it also allows them to continue your academic studies.

Courses can be for a variety of ages, for both sex's and cover many subjects and levels of academia. Please contact us to find the best option that suits player students. We can give you a full breakdown and list of additional services and products that each individual program can offer. We want to make sure that we tailor make an outcome that is suitable to player students needs and desires.

"Having expert advice is fundamental to any future football players journey. Advice, ability and education are key."

Richard Harcus CEO of Harcus Consultancy Group

RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL, COLLEGE & UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS

Your Global Pathway to Global Football & Education

Harcus Consultancy Group proudly partners with football schools, colleges, universities, residential institutions and football clubs all over the world, to connect talented young players from Asia and across the globe with leading UK/US/European education and football programs. Through these multiple collaborations, we can help you access fully residential schools, colleges and universities in UK/US/Europe/Asia, that combine quality education with elite football training for both males and females.

What Our Football School Partners Offer

- Elite football residential programs in the UK/US/Europe/Asia.
- Our partners work with a network of top UK/US/European/Asian residential programs, colleges, universities and clubs that offer structured football development programs alongside academics.
- These programs provide high-quality training, world-class facilities, and a supportive residential environment.
- We can provide, through our partners, male only and female only programs.
- Academically, students can work towards O-levels, A-Levels, foreign language studies, SAT/ACT prep. BTEC, Diploma, Graduate and Post Graduate and many more, in a plethora of subjects, just as you would in a standard learning environment.
- Unlike standalone academies, these programs emphasise a balance between rigorous football training and high-standard academics. That means you can get a full top level education while following a serious football program.
- Access to almost any U.S. college soccer program (working with roughly 99% of all men's and women's college-soccer programs across all divisions (NCAA Division I, II, III, NAIA, Junior College).

RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL, COLLEGE & UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS

RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL, COLLEGE & UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS

Residential School & University

RESIDENTIAL SCHOOL,

Quality coaching & strong pathways

- Institutions in the network employ experienced coaches (often former professionals) who are UEFA qualified) and have connections with professional clubs. Students have opportunities to play competitive fixtures, get scouted, and aim for club trials or broader exposure beyond academic level.
- Support for international students. For families abroad, our partners offers application guidance, visa/immigration advice, and helps you manage school admission, accommodation, and residence, simplifying the process of studying and playing in the UK/US/Europe or Asia.

Who Can Apply

- Ambitious young footballers (male or female) looking for a combined academic and football-development path.
- Harcus Consultancy Group and our partners supports students from around the world through the entire admissions and placement process.
- Players typically of school/college/university age, but exact age range depends on the selected boarding school, program and academic level.

What You Stand to Gain

- Access to elite-level training and development in a countries renowned for football excellence.
- Some programs give the opportunity to work towards UEFA coaching accreditation
- A strong academic foundation, earning recognised academic education while pursuing football.
- Opportunities for exposure and scouting, match play, competitive games, performance analysis, and visibility to clubs. Networking with fellow potential future football stars.
- In some cases, trials are part of the program, with others having scouts attend matches.
- A stable residential environment, safe boarding, education, football and overall personal development, ideal for international students.
- In some cases, football CV, Showreels, Heat Map Data, GPS-tracking metrics and more. • Social media advice and player marketing opportunities are available across many of our programs!
- Global credentials & future options, whether you aim for professional football, further studies international career, this path gives you flexibility and strong credentials.

FOOTBALL GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

Your Global Pathway to Global Football & Education

Harcus Consultancy Group partners with several partners to provide talented young footballers from Asia and across the globe with access to elite football training and development in Asia, UK and Europe. These pathways opens doors to professional club trials, overseas scholarship opportunities and global football networks. Whether your goal is to play professionally, gain international exposure, or combine football with academic achievement, Harcus Consultancy Group and our partners provide the guidance, support, and elite environment to help talented players reach their full potential.

What Our Football Gap Year Partners Offer

- Our partners offer structured academy programmes for males and females of ages U16–U21+
- Residential scholarship programs for older players.
- Our partners work with a network of top UK/US/European/Asian boarding schools, colleges, universities and clubs that offer structured football development programs alongside academics.
- These programs provide high-quality training, world-class facilities, and a supportive residential environment.
- High-quality coaching and training environment, modern facilities, experienced coaches and a pathway toward professional football.
- Residential & scholarship programmes for older youth/young adults (particularly 18–25), offering full-time training and support in Dubai for example.
- Opportunities for global exposure via international scholarship pathways (e.g. to North American colleges/universities), overseas placements and professional-club visibility.
- Players are guided through all administrative and logistical challenges, allowing them to focus on their growth and performance

FOOTBALL GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

FOOTBALL GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

Quality coaching & strong pathways

Players benefit from UEFA-qualified coaches, tactical and technical training, and regular competitive matches, giving them exposure to scouts and professional clubs. Residential programmes provide an immersive environment where football, personal development, and academic support work together to create well-rounded athletes.

Who Can Apply

- Ambitious young male and female footballers looking for a combined academic and footballdevelopment path.
- Talented players seeking professional-style training, competitive football, and global exposure. Families wanting a blend of sport, education and international opportunities for their child.
- Players typically of college/university age, exact age range depends on the selected program, program.
- Female specific programs where female p[layers want to be emersed in a female only playing environment.

What You Stand to Gain

- A strong developmental environment combining technical and tactical football training + personal growth.
- Realistic pathways to professional football and senior team opportunities.
- Option for residential training in Dubai an immersive environment where sport, training and lifestyle align for maximum development.
- Possibility to combine football ambitions with academic or scholarship opportunities abroad.
- International network exposure and opening doors beyond local or regional leagues.

FOOTBALL GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

CONTACT DETAILS

HARCUSCG

harcusconsultancygroup THANK YOU

@HarcusCG

@HarcusCGfootballed

company/Harcus-consultancy-group

Harcus Consultancy Group 20 Collyer Quay #09-01 Singapore 049319

