FTIFA FOOTBALL STUDIES PROGRAMME

Fleetwood Town Football Studies Programme in partnership with Rossall School offers the opportunity to study at a HMC Independent School, whilst being immersed in the world of a professional football team. Each pupil will be part of an elite football development programme under the umbrella of Fleetwood Town International Football Academy delivered by their elite coaching staff. The programme runs alongside a bespoke curriculum of education, tailored to the needs of the individual, delivered by the experienced teachers of Rossall School.

Players will be immersed into a full time training and games programme tailored round their educational requirement's with Rossall School.

Pupils will follow Fleetwood Town's own academy periodisation programme for a full school year at both Rossall School and Fleetwood Town's Poolfoot Farm Complex. This will focus on weekly and school term specific targets, working towards achieving the Fleetwood Town philosophy 'to educate, develop and produce creative players that are physically, technically and tactically astute'.

Pupils in Year 11, Year 12 and Year 13 can be accepted onto the programme. Any pupil admitted to the programme would therefore be between 15 and 19 years of age. A pupil would be part of the programme for a minimum of one year, but possibly longer, in order to complete an academic qualification. Rossall School offers courses in intensive English and Academic preparation for IGCSE and GCSE, A level and the IB Diploma.
