One of the UK's largest stadiums

Rangers' £14 million, state-of-the-art training centre includes seven full size pitches, two half size practice areas, a synthetic indoor pitch and the training centre housed within a 38 acre site at Auchenhowie, Milngavie.

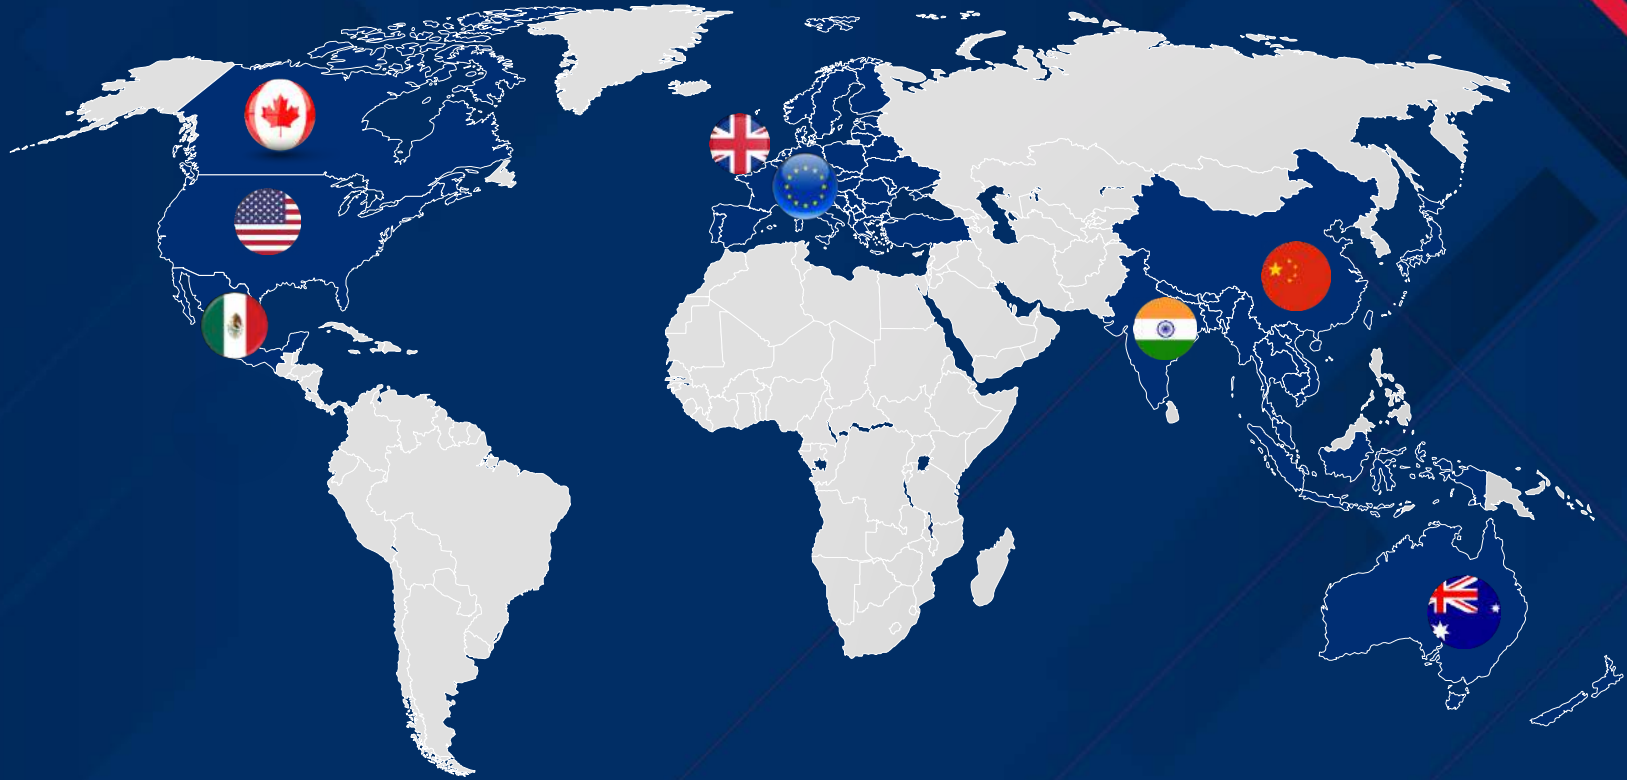

Opened in July, 2001, the centre is divided into three distinct sections – an administration wing, a professional wing and a youth wing. The youth and professional wings have their own reception area, dining room, changing rooms, kit store and lecture room, whilst facilities such as the gym, medical suite and indoor pitch are shared between the professional and youth set ups.
