

The Agent-Owned Cloud Brokerage™

In 2004, Mark Zuckerberg invited 5 people to his Harvard dorm room to discuss a business opportunity. Only 2 showed up & they got in.

Dustin Moskovitz is worth $13 Billion
Eduardo Severin is worth $9.5 Billion

What a lesson for those other 3 and all of us. Nothing is more expensive than a closed mind.

The screenshot displays the SkySlope web application interface. At the top, the SkySlope logo is on the left, and a user welcome message 'Welcome, Phil McGraw' with links for 'Home', 'Support', and 'Sign Out' is on the right. A search bar is located below the welcome message. A navigation bar contains links for 'Admin', 'My SkySlope', and 'Print'. Below this is a tabbed interface with 'Listing', 'Contacts', 'Checklist', 'Document', and 'Log'. The 'Document' tab is active, showing a form for a listing at '9328 Market Street, San Francisco CA, 94108'. The form includes fields for 'Agent' (Thomas Realto), 'Email' (MarketStreet9328@skyslope.com), and 'Year Built' (2000). Below the form is a 'Listing Documentation' section with a table of required documents. The table has columns for 'Documentation', 'Status', 'View Docs', and 'Comments'. The documents listed are: 1. Listing Agreement (Incomplete), 2. Seller Advisory (Pending), 3. MLS Printout or Non MLS Submission Request (Pending), 4. Agency Disclosure (Pending), 5. Short Sale Info and Advisory (If Applicable), and 6. Dual Agency (If Applicable). Each row has an 'Attach' button and, for some, 'Accepted' and 'Rejected' buttons. The footer contains copyright information for SkySlope, Inc. and a 'Powered by SkySlope' logo.

This screenshot shows a different view of the SkySlope interface, likely a mobile or tablet version. It displays a portion of the documentation table from the previous screenshot, showing items 3, 4, and 5. The layout is more compact, with the 'Status' column highlighted in red for 'Pending' and blue for 'If Applicable'. The 'Attach' and 'Accepted/Rejected' buttons are still present. The footer shows the copyright information and the SkySlope logo.
