

raymond f. kravis center for the performing arts west palm beach, florida

The Raymond F. Kravis Center of the Performing Arts is one of the nation's largest and most successful art centers and we've had the good fortune of working with the center for more than 20 years designing all the elements of the 435,000 s.f. facility. Located on a 5.4 acre site the original 200,500 s.f. center includes the 2,189-seat, 3-balcony multiple purpose Dreyfoos Hall with superb technical and acoustic adjustability to present performance events including symphony, ballet, opera, theatre and Broadway productions. Additional facilities include the 300-seat flexible Rinker Playhouse, the 1,600-seat Gosman Amphitheater and the New Cohen Pavilion, with it's 700-seat banquet hall, 30,000 s.f. of performing arts education areas, (which includes a major dance studio, a 5,400 s.f. high-volume rehearsal hall/flexible theatre, theatre labs, music practice rooms and support areas). 18,000 s.f. of offices for the Kravis Center, as well as area arts organizations and 168-space underground parking area, which ties into the original 1,100-space parking structure.
