

Perfection Pet Foods Donates Food To Houston Animal Shelters Following Hurricane Harvey

Visalia, California, September 29, 2017 – Following the devastation of Hurricane Harvey, Perfection Pet Foods is providing free cat and dog food to Houston-area animal shelters that are accepting displaced animals. Thanks to a partnership with local retailers and non-profit groups, the product was delivered on September 12th. Hundreds of displaced and stranded pets will receive the nutrition they desperately need.

"There's no question that we have a responsibility to serve those in need," said Dave McLain, CEO of Perfection Pet Foods. "We are proud to support the Houston community in any way possible."

Perfection Pet Foods worked alongside Animeals on Wheels, an organization that caters to disabled adults and seniors who are homebound and on limited fixed budgets.

Perfection Pet Foods (PPF) is a Visalia, CA based pet food manufacturer, specializing in ultra-premium dog and cat food.
