

Harvey Elementary Storybook Character Day

Hi Shark Families! We all know just how important books are in the lives of young children. Books give us hope, they make us laugh, and they even take us to places we have yet to go! In honor of books and their characters, we would like to invite your child to dress up on October 31st as his/her favorite storybook character. This would allow us to have a little fun as we dig a little deeper to learn about characters we know and love. It's a day to celebrate reading. We would ideally love for them to be dressed in a way where they could stay "in character" all day long. If he/she has a copy of their character's book, please bring that too! If not, the library may have one!

If you need ideas, chat with your child! We will be discussing ideas in the classroom! For even more information and ideas, go online and visit PINTEREST or GOOGLE Storybook Character costumes! If you have any questions, reach out to your child's teacher. Love Clifford? Wear a red shirt with a black nose and whiskers. Love the tree from Chicka Chicka Boom Boom? Wear brown shorts, a green shirt and stick paper letters all over...maybe even add a hat with some green palm fronds. It can be as elaborate or as simple as you would like. But please, nothing violent or anything with weapons. Thank you for your support in your child's journey to love reading and our celebration of books and characters!
