600mm x 600mm Collection

600mm x 600mm tile collection offers a range of finishes designed to meet both aesthetic and practical needs. For a sleek, high-gloss surface that enhances light and space, consider our Polished tiles. If you prefer a more subtle and sophisticated look, our Matt finish provides a clean, non-reflective surface. The Lappato finish offers a refined combination of shine and texture, creating a stylish yet practical option. For areas where safety is a priority, our Sliptech tiles provide excellent traction while maintaining a modern appearance. Finally, our Sugar finish features a distinctive granular texture that adds unique character to any room. Each finish in this collection combines elegance with functionality, ensuring you can find the ideal tile to elevate your space.

300mm x 600mm Collection

300mm x 600mm tile collection offers flexible design options to enhance your space. All tiles in this range can be used as wall tiles, providing a sleek and modern aesthetic to any vertical surface. However, for flooring needs, we recommend our Floor Tiles, which are specifically designed to handle foot traffic and provide durability. While any tile can grace your walls with elegance, please note that our Wall Tiles are not suitable for floor applications. This distinction ensures that you achieve both style and functionality in every area of your home.

750mm x 1500mm Collection

Our 750mm x 1500mm tile collection is most popular for use in kitchen, pantry and laundry splash backs due to their large size and seamless look. They are designed to offer both style and versatility for your space. Each tile in this range is crafted to bring a modern, sophisticated look to any room. Ideal for creating a seamless and elegant appearance, these tiles are perfect for large wall and floor surfaces. With their generous size, they help reduce grout lines and provide a clean, cohesive finish. Whether you're installing a new splash back or updating a living area, bathroom, or kitchen, our 750mm x 1500mm tiles offer a streamlined aesthetic that enhances the beauty of your space while ensuring durability and ease of maintenance.
