EXT. SHADOW GROVE - NIGHT

Forest with large trees creating a cover over the forest ground, full of gothic architectural ruins. The grey sky begins to pour down.

SABRINA, 25 graceful and delicate walks through the forest taking in the view and shivering from the cold.

SABRINA

(Yells)

If you are going to call me out here at least show yourself.

Sabrina moves towards the ruins of the Dark Fairy Palace. A sizeable Place with most of its parts still together.

Sabrina takes a breath and walks up the remaining steps to the fallen doors that used to stand tall at the front of the Palace and walks in.

INT. DARK FAIRY PALACE - NIGHT

Sabrina looks around and sees holes on the ground and the huge stain glass window, now broken, that used to be behind the throne at the end of the hall.

DELILAH, 25 intimidating and eerie slouches on the throne.

DELILAH

I didn't think you'd show.

SABRINA

You called and I told you time and time again I'd be here for you.

DELILAH

The golden sister, here to save the day.

SABRINA

You called me here. If you wanted insult be you could've sent a messenger.

DELILAH

You Light fairies are so sensitive.

Delilah gets up from the throne and walks over to Sabrina. She walks over and Sabrina sees Delilah's wings are almost completely destroyed.

DELILAH (CONT'D)

We have a problem and I need your help.

SABRINA

Your wings? What happened?

DELILAH

The wings aren't the problem. You know there's no way to fix them.

SABRINA

I know but maybe if you come back home back to the Palace. We can find a way to save what's left of them.

DELILAH

Home? I am home, the Shadow grove is my home. Rina I can't trust them you know that and the wings aren't our problem.

SABRINA

Mom and dad are better now they are more open to fairies...like you and Lux is worried about you I think he still loves you.

Delilah notably annoyed goes up to her sister and puts her hand on her shoulder and with her other hand swipes it close to her sister in effort to scare her.

A shadow is cast over her and her sister and the little weeds that once grow between the cracks die.

DELILAH

Rina, Fairies like me? You aren't even okay with it how can I believe mom and dad are okay with it.

SABRINA

No I am. I'm okay with you being a... Dark fairy. I mean it's not like you got to choose.

DELILAH

See that's the problem. You all think of my abilities as bad but i kind of like them.

SABRINA

You like bringing darkness and death?

DELILAH

It not like that, but like you said i didn't get to choose. I might not be able to bend light, hold fire and bring life like you and the rest of the family...

Delilah steps away from her sister and lifts both of her arms and clinches her fist and the dead vines begin to move down along the pillars towards Sebrina and wrap around her feet.

DELILAH (CONT'D)

I can do so much more. I control the dead so stop acting sorry for me.

Sebrina begins to get notably scared and tries to walk towards her sister but the vines hold her back.

SABRINA

Okay, I'm sorry please let me go! You said you needed something from me ii cant help you if I'm tied to floor please.

Delilah puts her hands down and releases her fist and Sebrina is free.

DELILAH

He's free.

SABRINA

What? How do you know that?

DELILAH

Came for me and the rest of the Dark fairy Clan.

SABRINA

I don't believe you. We locked him up he's gone.

DELILAH

How do you think my wings end up they way they did. You think I did this to myself?

SABRINA

I'm sorry okay. You should tell
Lux, he deserves to know.

Delilah gets notably irritated and sad. She begins to clinch her fist and a darkness fills the hall.

SABRINA (CONT'D)

I know you don't what anything to do with Elder woods or Palace life but Lux deserves to know his brother escaped.

Delilah turns away from her sister and looks at the broken stain glass window behind the throne.

FLASHBACK STARTS:

INT. DELILAH BEDROOM CORRIDOR - ELDER FOREST PALACE - NIGHT

Delilah and LUX, 26 regal and tall holding hands stop at the end of her room's corridor right in front of the doors that lead to her room.

DELILAH

You don't have to go. In fact I would prefer you don't go. Leave it to the army that's been training.

LUX

I can't do that you know that. My brother's darkness took over him and if I can't save him I want to be one to hunt him down.

DELILAH

You make it sound like you do this daily.

LUX

You should be used to it you're actually in the military.

DELILAH

Yeah, I'm used it but hearing it from you is weird.

LUX

Alright fine what do you want to talk about?

DELILAH

How about that amazing Sandwiches you just made? Or the-

Before Delilah can finish her sentence a darkness fills the room and Lux grabs Delilah to try and protect her.

As lux looks around the corridor a FIGURE emerges from the ground as if he were going through the floor.

LUX

Stay behind me.

The Figure takes his draped hood off his head and reveals, Samuel, 26 morbid and void.

SAMUEL

Brother, it's nice to see you again. I heard you were looking for me.

LUX

You can't be here Samuel. Leave ill be forced to kill you.

SAMUEL

(Laughing)

You? Kill me? You the Royal treasurer you're gonna kill me? You're little girl friend has a better chance of killing me then you do of even scratching me.

LUX

Don't even look at her.

SAMUEL

Delilah is it? You know you're more than what they want you to think. I really do think you could kill me.

DELILAH

I could kill you. So watch yourself.

SAMUEL

I'm not here for you.
