ENTREPRENEUR

Patchika (a.k.a. Bachir Aneb) has developed a Muslim/Arabic/Algerian T-shirt line Called FAME STATION through ETSY.

Patchika is developing a website www.northafricadentalvacations.com with five income producing opportunities to elevate MENA region and his fellow Algerian.

Patchika is exploring interested in import export opportunities from China for the estimated 5 billion available ecommerce dollars inside Algeria.

Patchika's wife Amanda Aneb (Amanda Jessica Dunning) was among other things a short-lived but highly successful Canadian realtor who performed substantial land work using GIS analyzing 1,500 properties that sold for $238 Billion and $17 Billion dollars minimum revenue for the builders in Milton and Halton Hills and received over $49 Million + commissions from which she is owed her share. Noteworthy among her other work was also used by yet another brokerage, Colliers without her knowledge or consent and sold to Desjardins and they created fairsquare and they earned made $212 Million dollars.

Amanda is an Inventor and designed three uspto patents, 1. USPTO Patent Application "Camouflage Me" is a platform that resolves inequality in opportunity, ending racism, ageism, sexism, bias and envy in all of its forms and ends homelessness and links opportunity for humans and robots with housing. 12 years of private work research in the making.

2. USPTO Patent Application "Unicorn Receptacle" is a device for municipalities to allow tiny homes as gardens suites and both homes to dispose of waterless toilet waste and can be used to resolve the sanitation issues in Africa.

3. USPTO Provisional Application "IM Game BNB" links Airbnb with dating/romance sex. Travel stays with a twist but is not prostitution.

Amanda was also a Round 3, Top 20 finalist beating out total 600 applications for DRAGONS DEN – WALMART in Canada the world's largest realtor. These are a just a few of her qualifications, accomplishments.
