

Job

1:1-22

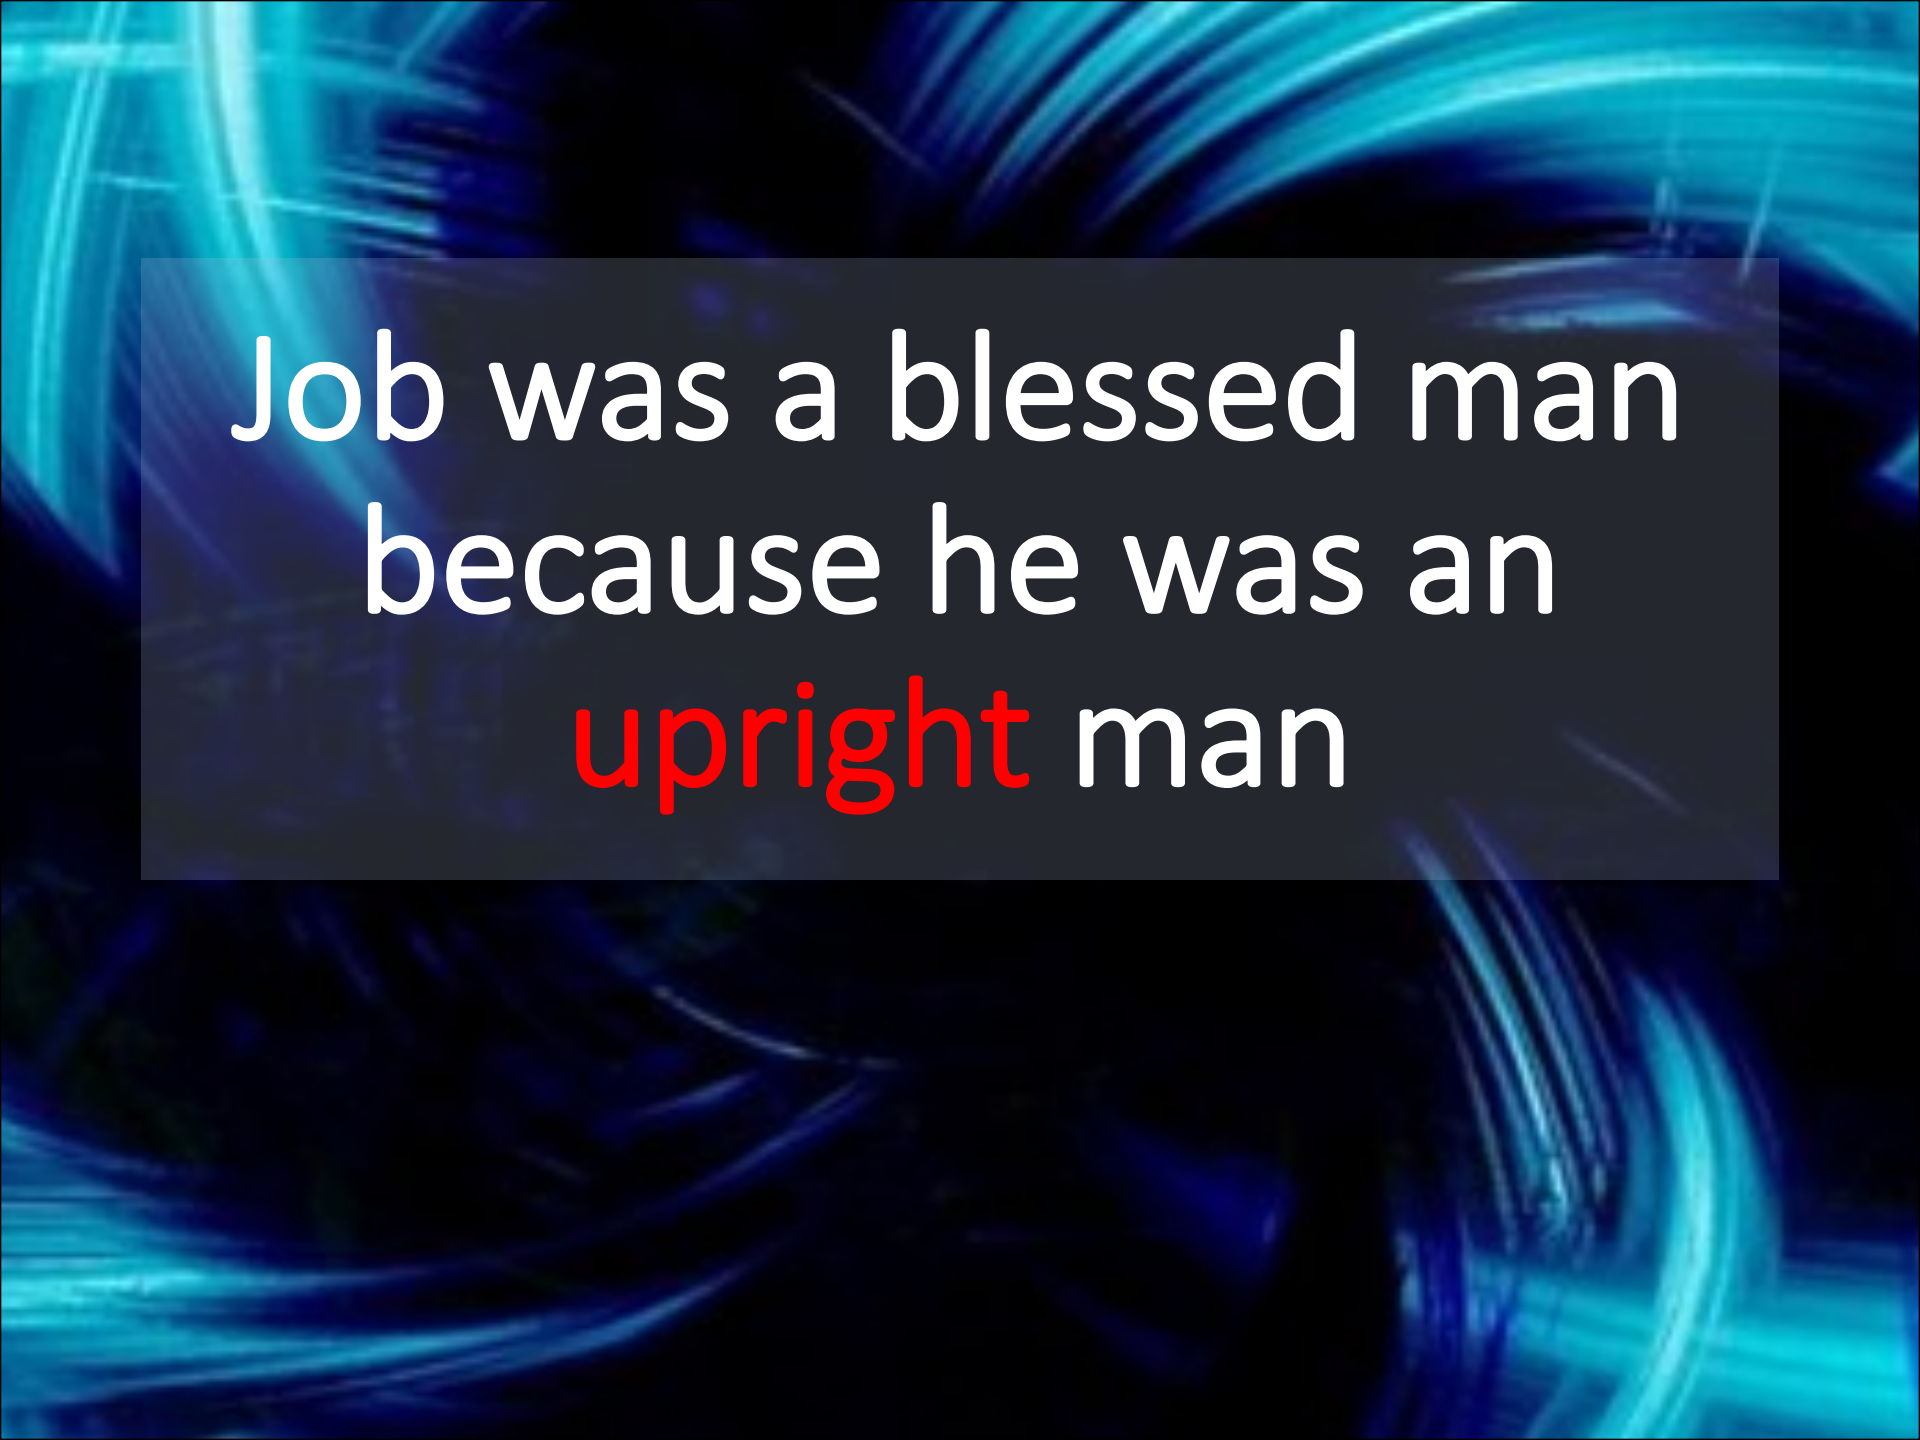

2:1-10

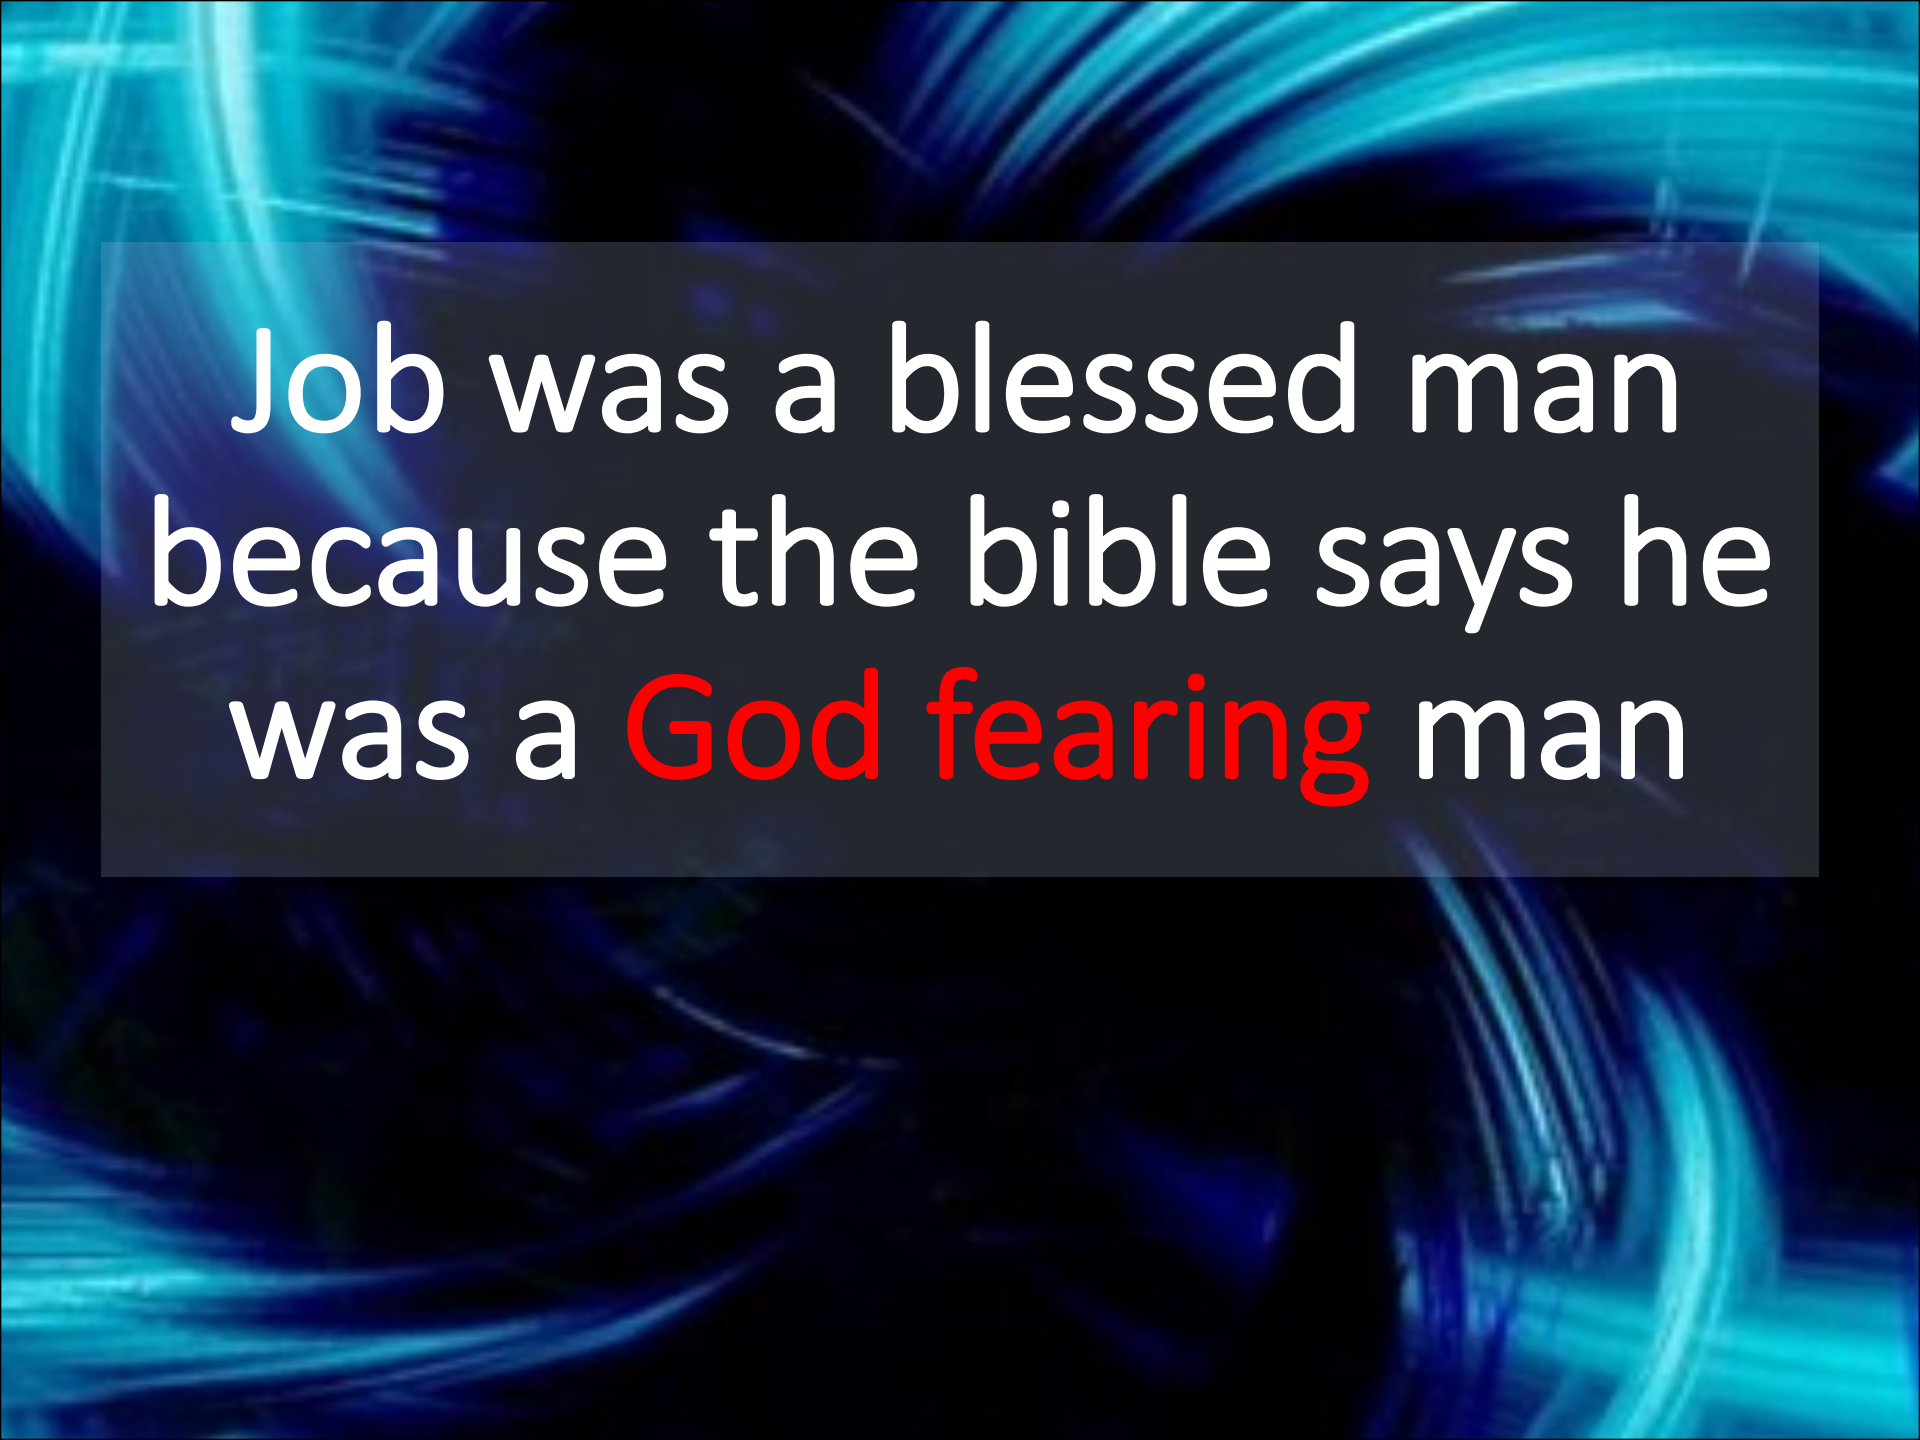

*“Look Before
You Jump”
Part 4*

Job was a blessed man because he was a blameless man

The background of the image is an abstract composition of vibrant blue and cyan light trails. These trails are curved and overlapping, creating a sense of motion and depth. The colors range from deep, dark blues to bright, glowing cyan, with some areas appearing as soft, out-of-focus halos of light. The overall effect is reminiscent of a digital or cosmic landscape.

Job was a blessed man
because he was an upright man

The background of the image is an abstract, dynamic composition of light trails in shades of blue and cyan. These trails are curved and overlapping, creating a sense of motion and depth. The overall effect is reminiscent of a digital or cosmic environment.

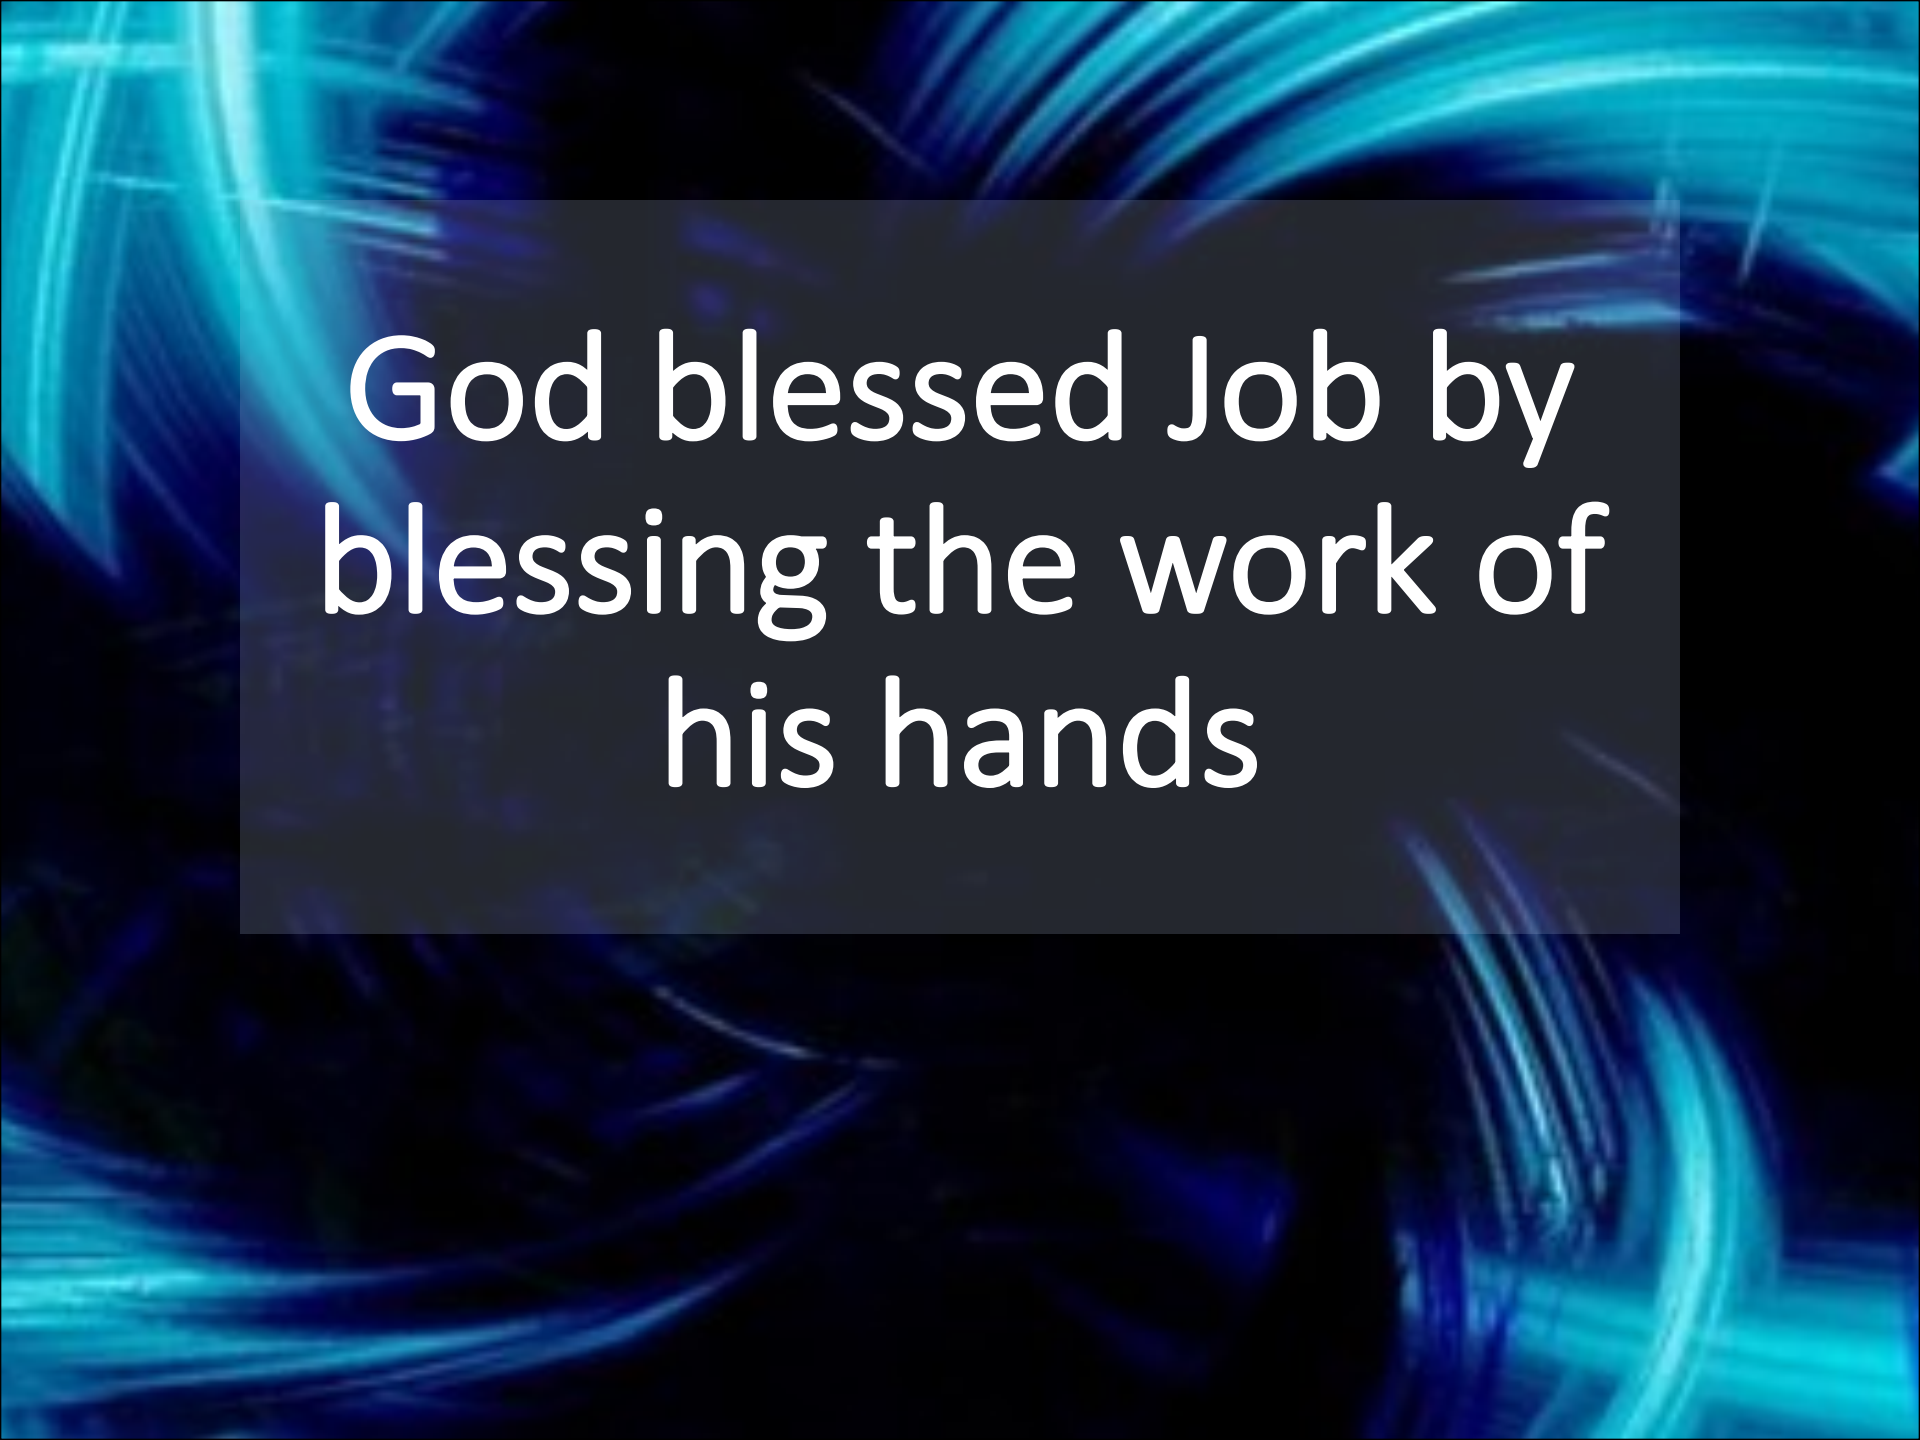

Job was a blessed man
because the bible says he was a God fearing man

The background of the slide features a dynamic, abstract pattern of glowing blue and cyan light trails. These trails are curved and overlapping, creating a sense of motion and depth. The colors range from deep, dark blues to bright, vibrant cyan and light blue highlights. The overall effect is reminiscent of a digital or cosmic environment.

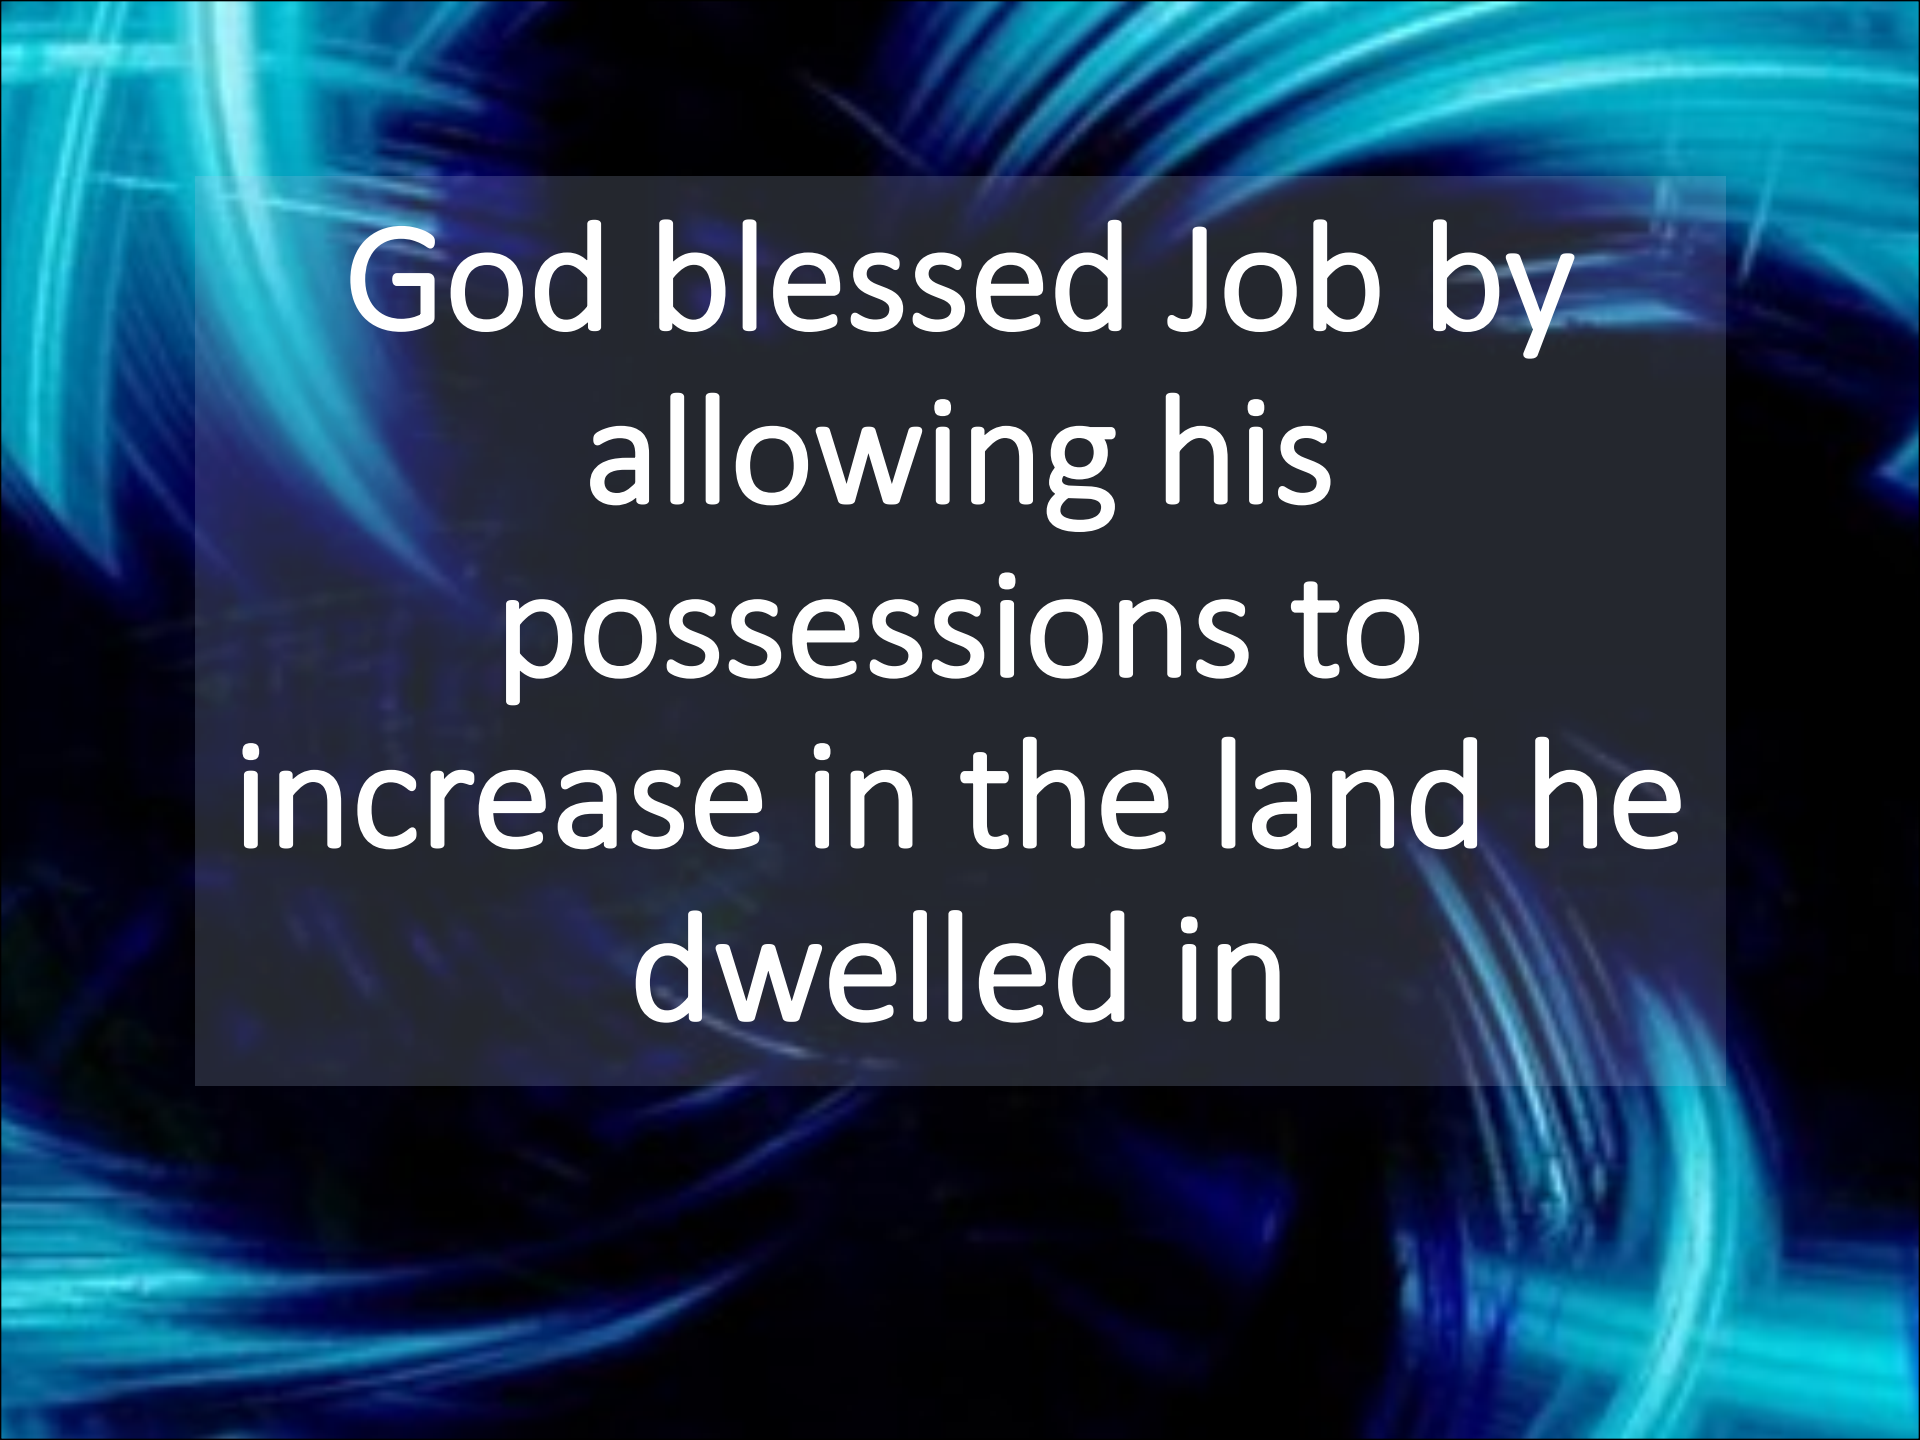

Job was a blessed man
because the bible says that he shunned evil

God blessed Job by putting a hedge of protection around him

God blessed Job by blessing the work of his hands

God blessed Job by allowing his possessions to increase in the land he dwelled in

Job was sooo blessed that he got the attention of Satan

How did Satan afflict Job, one way was by getting under his skin

The background of the slide is an abstract, dynamic composition of glowing blue and cyan light trails. These trails are curved and flow across the frame, creating a sense of motion and energy. The colors range from deep, dark blues to bright, almost white cyan highlights. A semi-transparent dark grey rectangular box is centered on the slide, containing the text.
