

Raymond D. Grosser

January 6, 1940 – November 19, 2023

Raymond D. Grosser, 83, of Eubank, passed away Sunday, November 19, 2023, at the Lake Cumberland Regional Hospital Jean Waddle Care Center.

He was born January 6, 1940 in Minneapolis, Minnesota; son of the late Dan W. & Mary (Mason) Grosser. He worked as a site inspector for CMW Architects in Lexington. Ray was a Staff Sargent who served in the US Army of the 389th MI company of the 11th Special Forces group, Airborne. He was heavily involved in model railroading and also authored several books about the Lord including, The Great Apostasy.

He is survived by his wife, Renee (Ringsmuth) Grosser; and friends, Dr. Mike & (Robin) Citak, Todd & Gail Ott, Jamie & Buffy House, Caleb & Carlee Faulkner, Kerry & Lori Morrow, Tanner & Amy Morrow, and Donna & Bruce Chute. He is preceded in death by his parents; a son, Kurt Allen Grosser; and a sister, Diane Lynch. Ray and Renee resided in Eubank, Kentucky.

A visitation and funeral service was held on Friday, December 1, 2023, at the Morris & Hislope Funeral Home. Morris & Hislope Funeral Home was honored to assist the family.

