

Frank Hermanek, MMR
1933 – 2021

Frank John Hermanek, 88, of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, passed away on Thursday, December 23, 2021. He was born December 19, 1933 in New York, New York, son of the late Frank and Elizabeth (Gubas) Hermanek. He worked for GE Aircraft Engine Group and then also at Praxair.

Frank was a renowned Master Model Railroader of the National Model Railroad Association. It was his hobby and he excelled at it, becoming MMR #360. Frank joined Cincinnati Division 7 and the Mid-Central Region when he moved from Indianapolis to Lawrenceburg, Indiana. He was a talented craftsman and built many contest winning freight cars recognized at the divisional, regional and national levels of the National Model Railroad Association.

He is survived by his loving wife, June Hermanek; son, Frank Hermanek; 5 daughters, Laura (Anthony) Turco, Barbara (Randall) Osborne, Christine (Jay) Donovan, Lisa (William) Burley, Gwen (Greg) Lanyi; sister, Barbara (Arthur) Morin; 13 grandchildren; and 12 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Elizabeth Hermanek; and his son, Craig Richard Hermanek.

Frank was a member of the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. A memorial Mass to honor his life will be celebrated on Monday, Jan. 17th starting at 11:00 A.M. at St. Lawrence Church (542 Walnut St, Lawrenceburg, IN 47025) followed by a reception at the Three Mile Ridge Clubhouse (715 Three Mile Ridge Rd, Lawrenceburg, IN 47025).

Contributions may be made to the St. Lawrence Catholic School or Seeds of Hope Women's Shelter. See the funeral home site at www.fitchdenney.com