Announcing!

The Positively Hollis Kids Christmas Coloring Exhibition!

Dear Parents,

In case you haven't heard the news, positivelyhollis.com is a dynamic website dedicated to celebrating what we all love about Hollis.

Will you help us feature our creative kids in The Positively Hollis Kids Christmas Coloring Exhibition? It's easy! Just have your budding artist color this page and send a photo of it to us. We will be posting all submissions in our Positively Hollis Kid's Art Gallery.

Email your child's finished coloring page to:
Liz Barbour, positivelyhollis@gmail.com

And please visit positivelyhollis.com to see all of the wonderful Hollis happenings and local stories we share.
