

Aloha!

My name is David Shultz

Many mahina ago my childhood dream was to surf the Hawaiian waves. Those amazing days came true with the influence of the Aloha of Hawaii. After returning to the mainland the Island spirit always reminded me of the amazing Hawaiian culture. In a big way, I was compelled to carve Tikis, and as the years went by I surrounded myself with great memories of the Hawaiian island historical art and its primitive history.

"Dave's Paradise Tikis", became what best describes my creativity as Aloha infused & inspired.
Hope you enjoy all of my Tiki creations!
