The Greatest Treasure

*The greatest treasure in the world is not found beneath the earth.
It's bounty has been with me all my life
from the very moment of my birth.*

*When opened, there is no gold or silver and it isn't hard to find.
It comes with unconditional love and gives me peace of mind.*

*When times are tough and I get down
it's the treasure I was given,
that gently smiles and always says
I love you and you're forgiven.*

*I wonder how she always knew what I was feeling everyday.
And when she held me in her arms knowing just the right words to say.*

*Yes, the greatest treasure in the world could only come from God above.
It is the tender, gentle heart that is my mother's love.*

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers...past, present, and future!

M.Y. Heart's ministry is collecting supplies to make blessing bags for the homeless. These items include such things as pocket Bibles, travel shampoos, conditioners, soap, and other necessities. A green bin is located under the mailboxes in the hallway behind the sanctuary and in the narthex. A list of other items are located on the flyer at these collection bins. If you have questions about this new outreach, email Julie Love at jaxandcb@yahoo.com. Our current needs for spring/summer: white undershirts, deodorant, sunscreen, chapstick, ball caps, etc.

MAY

The spirit of complaint is born out of an unwillingness to trust God with today. Like the Israelites, it means you are spending your time looking back toward Egypt or wishing for the future, all the while missing what God is doing right now. —Priscilla Shirer

A Shared Experience

What comes to mind when you hear the word Pentecost? Many people think of a mighty wind, tongues of fire and multiple languages. But Acts 2 begins with another detail that's just as key: Jesus' disciples "were all together in one place." Because they were together physically and spiritually, the early believers didn't miss the life-changing, world-changing birth of the Church.

The pandemic, while changing our definition of gathering, also highlighted our need for interaction. If Jesus' first followers hadn't been assembled on Pentecost, they would've missed the outpouring of God's power and the indescribable joy God had for them. Think about what believers today might miss if we neglect to worship with other friends of Christ. Who would want to miss God's blessings, promises and joy?

*Is it enough to think today of all our brave, then put away the thought until a year has sped? Is this full honor for our dead?
Is it enough to sing a song and deck a grave; and all year long forget the brave who died that we might keep our great land proud and free?*

Full service needs a greater toll, that we who live give heart and soul to keep the land they died to save, and be ourselves, in turn, the brave!

Loving an EGR

During a conversation over coffee, a friend mentioned an “EGR.” I had to interrupt and ask for a definition: Extra Grace Required — in other words, people who can seem tough to love. Often, they’re the most in need of love because they’re hurting. Perhaps Jesus was referring to EGRs when he said, “If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much” (Matthew 5:46, NLT).

Truly loving others — even EGRs — might not be as tough as we think. Simple gestures such as smiling, truly listening, sending a note or extending an invitation go a long way toward expressing care and softening hearts.

At times, we all require extra grace. Thankfully, God has an unlimited amount to extend to us and then through us. Out of joy, we can find ways—even simple ones—to share God’s grace and love with people who need it.
