

Plant Shutdown Learning & Technical Services

QUALITY POLICY

- PSLTS (PLANT SHUTDOWN LEARNING & TECHNICAL SERVICES) is committed to follow the laid-down norms for quality management systems as per the Compliance with national and international laws, regulations, circulars, instructions, manuals, standards and requirements & strictly adheres to the following quality principles:
- Necessary regular training is to our workforce to conserve resources, time, and defects and continue lay improve processes in line with the requirements.
- Timely delivery, satisfying all Quality Norms.
- Achieve quality objectives matching with our quality policy and continually measure the effectiveness and efficiency in achieving these objectives.
- Provide our services in a high Quality level and strive to exceed our customer expectations.
- Commitment to participation culture and accepting suggestions from employees and creating a cooperation spirit between employees and management in a good work environment.
- We believe that our success is closely associated with our competencies towards performance, time and cost. Therefore, we heartily welcome feedback and suggestions from our clients for all our deliverables.
- We utilize the precious information to improve the quality of the products, systems and processes.

Vijaykanth Kumar Choudhary
Managing Director