I. ENTITY PROFILE

Name: Cato Institute

Founded: 1977 by Edward H. Crane, Charles Koch, and Murray Rothbard

Headquarters: Washington, D.C.

Declared Mission: To promote individual liberty, limited government, free markets, and peace

Real-world Function: A libertarian think tank that has served as a philosophical engine behind deregulation, privatization, and the rollback of federal safeguards, while providing intellectual justification for anti-democratic movements masquerading as constitutional conservatism.

II. AREAS OF STRATEGIC INFLUENCE

1. Privatization of Government Functions

Cato has advocated for:

- The elimination of federal agencies, including the Department of Education, Housing and Urban Development, and the IRS
- Replacement of public infrastructure with private sector solutions, erasing constitutional obligations such as equal access, civil rights protections, and due process
- Mass deregulation of environmental and labor protections, under the guise of “free market efficiency”

2. Undermining Federal Oversight

Cato consistently promotes:

- Nullification doctrines and “Tenth Amendment maximalism,” used by America First-aligned officials to defy federal mandates
- Legal frameworks to allow state secession from federal enforcement, especially in areas like gun control, healthcare, and voting rights
- Delegitimization of federal judiciary authority, especially when courts rule in favor of civil liberties

This has contributed directly to the erosion of national unity, the weakening of federal law, and the normalization of civil disobedience by elected officials.

3. Sanitized Rhetoric for Seditious Ideologies

By branding radical anti-government policies in polished libertarian language, Cato helped:

- Legitimize white nationalist-adjacent ideologies under “states’ rights” and “freedom of association”
- Justify economic and political secessionism in red states, aligning indirectly with America First goals
- Serve as a bridge between extremist ideology and elite respectability, enabling Project 2025 and Schedule F-style governance to take shape

III. ROLE IN AMERICA FIRST ALIGNMENT

While Cato has not publicly endorsed Donald Trump, its policy ecosystem directly enabled the rise of:

- America First economic nationalism, via anti-regulation, anti-tax dogma
- Digital privatization of public services, including schooling, healthcare, and surveillance infrastructure
- Authoritarian “localism”, which undermines national civil rights by empowering states to discriminate under the guise of sovereignty

Unauthorized disclosure, tampering, or obstruction may constitute violations of U.S. law, international conventions, and Geneva Protocols. Several America First Policy Institute (AFPI) advisors previously worked with or cited Cato Institute models when designing replacement legal frameworks for the federal government between 2021 and 2024.

IV. DECLARATION OF LIABILITY AND DEMAND FOR OVERSIGHT

I, Bonnie Kurowski, hereby declare:

1. That the Cato Institute has provided intellectual cover for movements seeking to dismantle constitutional government through economic and regulatory sabotage
  2. That its libertarian ideology has been repurposed as a vessel for sedition, justifying the nullification of democratic protections under “freedom” branding
  3. That international courts, U.S. oversight bodies, and regulatory watchdogs should assess its role in the legal architecture of constitutional subversion, particularly regarding privatized warfare, voting suppression, and Schedule F-style employment purges
  4. That Cato’s activities be flagged as enabling ideological infrastructure for the America First movement and related governance insurgencies

Signed,
