Beauty is a word that can imply different things to different people, depending on the situation. In general, it refers to a group of attributes, such as form, color, or shape, that appeals to the aesthetic senses, particularly sight.

It can also refer to a set of characteristics that appeals to the mind or the moral sense

Some would argue that one's personal preferences and ideas determine what they consider to be beautiful.

Others would assert that there are universal norms and criteria for beauty, making it objective.

When it comes to beauty, are these quotes true?

- "Sometimes people are beautiful. Not in looks. Not in what they say. Just in what they are." - Markus Zusak, I Am the Messenger
- "Beauty is not in the face; beauty is a light in the heart." - Kahlil Gibran
- "Everything has beauty, but not everyone sees it." - Confucius
- "The beauty of a woman is not in a facial mode, but the true beauty in a woman is reflected in her soul." - Audrey Hepburn
