"EXPOSING YOUTH TO THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT"

RECRUITING STUDENTS FOR IN-PERSON INTERACTIVE SUMMER CAMP

The Southern California Chapter of the National Organization of Minority Architects (SoCal NOMA) will be hosting our 13th annual SoCal NOMA Architecture Summer Camp. We are pleased to announce the camp will be IN-PERSON this year! We will follow all CDC and applicable local guidelines to ensure the health and safety of our members, students, volunteers, and communities. For over a decade, SoCal NOMA has introduced young minds to architecture and engineering, influencing several students to pursue a career in design. We will continue that journey in person with a curriculum of exciting workshops, engaging activities, live sessions, tours, and small group forums all hosted over four Saturdays in July (9, 16, 23, & 30th).

The National Origination of Minority Architects' mission is to champion diversity in the architectural industry and drive young designers to choose the design trades as a career path. The camp is part of NOMA National's Project Pipeline initiative, developed to increase the representation of minority professionals in the field of architecture. The Project Pipeline camps were created to equip, empower, and educate youth through architectural design and allied fields.

You are an invaluable link in the chain that helps us fulfill our mission and connects students and their future, and we are excited to have you join us to make this year's camp our most successful yet. Students and their families are encouraged to contact SoCal NOMA directly for more information. You can register online at www.socalnoma.org.
