

THE MARRIAGE SUPPER OF THE LAMB

Mentioned Mayan slave ship during Caste war took mayan slaves to Cuba. Not a sign they are Israelites. Only about 20 to 30 a month sent to Cuba for a couple year period. Mayans were not loaded into cargo slave ships and sent to the four corners of the earth. You had Israelites taken from Africa & to a much lesser extent Europe and shipped to the Americas as slaves. You had Israelites from Africa shipped to Iraq, Iran, India, China, East Indies, Indian ocean Islands, etc.. You will not find Native American/Mayans globally. But you will find negroes globally who were brought to those places as slaves. Native Americans were not owned as slaves in Africa.

Yah and his wife Israel/Church were in covenant marriage. Israel/Church played the whore thus breaking the covenant. Yah put away/divorced his wife because of this, but will remarry her at his second coming.

1. Revelation 19:9
2. Ezekiel 16

- Verse 3=Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob all sojourned in Canaan after Yah called the Hebrews from the other side of the Euphrates. Father Amorite (branch of Canaanites)=Abraham was in confederacy with the Amorites. See Genesis 14:13. Mother Hittite (branch of Canaanites)=Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob all lived amongst the Hittites at various times. The Patriarchs were buried in a cave on land purchased from the Hittites. See Genesis 23. Israelites are often undistinguished from Hamitic groups. Israelites became a nation in Africa. Hamitic peoples and Semitic peoples are both African. Most Ancient Biblical Semitic cultures developed in the land of Ham (Africa). Not developing into nations until in the land of Ham.
- Verses 3-7=The Israelites as a nation were birthed out of bondage in Kemet. Verse 6=Israelites officially became a nation after passover.
- Verse 8=Yah married Israel by entering into covenant with her. Spread thy skirt over her=Marriage. See Ruth 3:9. This is also a perfect example of why telling a woman she cannot wear pants because it pertaineth to a man is retarded. But she can wear a skirt? SMH.
- Verses 11-13=When Yah proposed to Israel he gave her a ring.
- Verses 14-21=For all that Yah blessed Israel with she went and played the whore spiritually with those blessings. Verse 21=The Israelites were still sacrificing humans even after migrating into West Africa. Take Nigeria for example. Human sacrifice was found among Hebraic cultures there during the slave trade (Yoruba & Igbo=Israelites and Edo=Edom). See my videos on Edo/Benin and Dahomey. That was one of the reasons the gentiles (British) colonized the area. Also to end the slave trade besides the obvious resources exploitation. In fact human sacrifice still takes place. Remember or religion prior to coming over here on slave ships was the same as the Israelites in the Bible. You had a few in the truth but most practice syncretic Yahweh worship. Meaning: Belief in a supreme dualistic deity I.E. The Father & Son usually refer to as the Sky God and his son used for creating the universe. This God is not concerned with their day to day affairs in their minds so they worship lesser gods (demons/angel worship, orishas, idols, juju, voodoo, oogabooga). These lesser gods are just recycled/repackages versions of the ancient gods of the Near East (Kemet, Kush, Mesopotamia, Babylon etc...). They also incorporated ancestor veneration or consulting familiar spirits. Lastly they mixed ritual sacrifice.

- Belief in the power of spirits in Nigeria, even among the educated, is believed to contribute to the practice of ritual human sacrifice – which can make killers like Ben Adebayo rich. The witchdoctors who use vital organs, skulls and other body parts for occultic rituals pay handsomely for them, as their clients believe they can bring power and wealth when used in potions and amulets, according to Nigerian news reports. A “ritualist” like Adebayo was earning a good living cultivating human body parts – from people he killed – for “herbalists,” witchdoctors who use them in potions or incantation rituals. Amulets and potions made of ritually sacrificed body parts are believed to make people invincible, protecting them from illness, accidents, economic failure or attacks from evil spirits, the reports say. While the traditional, animistic beliefs that accompany belief in ritual influence of the spirit world are common among the uneducated in Nigeria’s villages, such beliefs and practices extend to the well-educated in cities, local news outlets report. Often chosen for ritual murder are “soft targets” like the elderly, the physically challenged and children, the reports say. Last December in Ondo state, two women in their 70s were hacked to death in their homes in separate incidents linked by a common practice – the removal of their vital organs for ritual use. A sociologist at Bayero University in Kano, in northern Nigeria, told an Agence France-Presse reporter that traditional shamans in the country prefer children’s body parts for get-rich-quick potions. The 31-year-old Adebayo, whose location is undisclosed for security reasons, made a practice of luring young women with money, he told the leader of a ministry that Christian Aid Mission assists. “He was involved in serious, occultic/witchcraft killing of girls, and then removing their breasts and private parts,” the ministry leader said. “He used this to make so much money, and he became so deeply involved in killing that he destroyed more than seven girls, whom they used for sacrifice.” With the same intent, Adebayo arranged to meet a young woman who, he was unaware, was a missionary with the locally based ministry, the leader said. Adebayo commonly asked girls or women to accept money in exchange for helping him with some fake task, and they would then follow him into the forest as part of the ruse. There he would kill them.
