We are so proud to announce that the Artists and Charities Hand In Hand Fine Art Show has been sold out and some of the best artists in the country will be exhibiting at this fantastic event. 20% of all art sales will be donated to our participating charities.

Please stop by to meet and support these local artists and those from all over the world, working in all media.

Manuel Oliver, who lost his son Joaquin at Parkland and is a renowned international artist, will also be displaying his fabulous art. The show will be covered by the local TV stations, newspapers and magazines.

Admission is free though an optional $10 entry fee will be asked. Those that donate will receive swag bags valued at more than $10 and win possible raffle gifts valued at over $200!

Food cafe and cash bar are available during the show hours.
